Britain May Use Force to Keep Suez Open Ike Sure He Can Carry On, Okays Nixon

Health Not As Good as Last Year Suez Issue His Major Concern

Washington, Aug. 1 (P)—President Eisenhower said today he is feeling good but not as well as he did a year ago. He added he has no doubt he would be able to carry on in the Presidency for another four years beyond next January.

Eisenhower gave this report to a jammed news conference, his first since he underwent an emergency abdominal operation June 9.

TOLD THAT some of his friends and neighbors in the vicinity of his Gettysburg, Pa., farm have expressed concern as to whether he would live through another term, Eisenhower replied with a smile that he was flattered by their concern.

Then he said the Republican Party and the country apparently believe they still need him. He added that the decision will be up to the American people.

Eisenhower was noticeably a bit thinner than when he held his last news conference on June 6. But he replied to a barrage of questions during a 30-minute session in a sure voice and seemed to be in a confident mood.

ON OTHER SUBJECTS

Eisenhower had this to say: The vice presidency—Richard M. Nixon still is perfectly acceptable to him as a vice presidential running mate. Harold E. Stassen has launched a campaign to dump Nixon from the Republican ticket and nominate Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts in his place.

While Eisenhower again spoke highly of Nixon, he refused to say whether Herter or anyone else would be acceptable.

The President said that if he commented on any others who might be mentioned it might put him in the position of having to state what he termed reservations about some of them.

SUEZ—the international crisis generated by Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal is one which must be handled with great care.

Eisenhower added we must make sure that certain rights of the world in connection with use of the great waterway are not abused.

On the question of the possibility of putting the canal under international control, a reporter remarked that such a step might lead to suggestions by other nations that the U. S. owned and controlled the canal.

Homebuilding in Counties Of Area Showing Decrease

Homebuilding in the Kingston-Newburgh-Poughkeepsie area for the first six months of 1956 showed a decrease and in New York state was 25 per cent below the same period last year, according to a report released today by the State Division of Housing.

The figures were released today by State Housing Commissioner Joseph P. McMurray.

In the Kingston-Newburgh-Poughkeepsie industrial area (Dutchess, Orange and Ulster counties), Mr. McMurray reported that valuation of building permits issued was $11,990,900 for the first six months of 1956 for all types of construction.

This consists of permits for 483 dwelling units—which includes permits for 477 one-family homes—valued at $4,812,200, approximately $2,026,100 for additions, alterations and repairs to existing buildings, and $5,152,300 in new non-residential construction.

For the first six months of 1955, permits were issued for 584 dwelling units—which included permits for 582 one-family homes—valued at $6,381,900, Commissioner McMurray reported.

Homebuilding in New York state during June was 29 per cent below June of last year and retained the lagging pace of earlier months to set the half-year total of 25 per cent below the same period last year, Deputy Commissioner Mary Lavery reported in a monthly summary of construction activities.

However, the valuation of such residential building was 26

Burma Presses Peiping For Troop Withdrawal

Rangoon, Burma, Aug. 1 (P)—Burma today pressed Communist China to withdraw Red troops which military sources say have occupied about 1,000 square miles of Burmese territory.

There were no reports of new advances. Clashes with Burmese forces and some casualties were said to have occurred when the Chinese units moved up to 60 miles at various points into Burma's northern territory.

A government spokesman said Burma was "seriously concerned" about the moves along the northeast border and had brought the situation to the attention of the Peiping government.

There was no accurate count of the strength of the Chinese force, but estimates here put the total at not less than 500 troops.

Harriman Is Confident Despite Move to Adlai

Washington, Aug. 1 (P)—Sen. Estes Kefauver's withdrawal appeared today to have heightened Adlai E. Stevenson's chances to win the Democratic presidential nomination again on an early convention ballot.

Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, however, maintained a show of confidence and some of his backers contended that his prospects had been improved despite Kefauver's appeal to his supporters to switch to Stevenson.

Kefauver, in a surprise move, withdrew from the race late yesterday and said that in the interest of Democratic unity and victory he would support Stevenson at the party convention opening in Chicago a week from Monday.

Stevenson said in Chicago he shares Kefauver's hope "that we Democrats, united by a common purpose, can soon close ranks and get on with this fateful campaign."

Harriman said in New York that Kefauver's withdrawal clears the air, and he added:

"His delegates are now free. I've asked them to join me in the cause I stand for. Many have already told me they will do so."

Harriman contended he will get more than half the delegates who had been pledged to Kefauver. Michael H. Prendergast, New York Democratic State Chairman and one of Harriman's campaign managers, said the New York governor's prospects are "brighter than ever."

"The many supporters of Sen. Kefauver who backed him for the nomination will now be for Gov. Harriman," Prendergast said.

Stevenson himself made no predictions but his campaign manager, James A. Finnigan, said Kefauver's withdrawal created "a very strong chance that Stevenson will be nominated on the first ballot." Several other

Dealers to Talk Over ABC Ruling Tuesday at 2:30

A meeting of the Ulster County Hotel and Restaurant Liquor Dealers' Association, Inc., has been called by George Broome, president, for next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at The Barn.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the new Alcoholic Beverage Control Board ruling closing bars and tap rooms at 1 a. m. beginning October 1st.

Many of the members of the association feel that the early closing will seriously affect the county as a resort area.

At the meeting next Tuesday a thorough discussion of the new ruling will be had by the association members and in all probabilities the association will formulate its position in the matter and submit that position to the ABC Board for consideration.

One proprietor of a restaurant and grill expressed an opinion that the early closing would "result in the opening of Bottle Clubs" and in elimination of entertainment, employment of musicians and would seriously affect the earnings of the job at other Alcoa and Reynolds plants.

AWIU workers at the Cressona, Pa., Alcoa plant reportedly walked out after the original deadline at midnight last night. But the union ordered them back while contract negotiations continue.

"There is no (AWIU) strike," said a union official.

Despite the strike by the Steelworkers' Union, contract talks were to resume today in three cities—New York, Pittsburgh and Richmond, Va.

The USW strike hit 12 Alcoa and 9 Reynolds plants producing about half the nation's aluminum. Nine other Alcoa and 10 Reynolds mills where the AWIU has jurisdiction officially stayed in operation.

The USW contract with Reynolds and Alcoa expired at midnight. A union spokesman said after talks recessed here at 1:30 a. m. That Alcoa's package offer "failed to match the steel settlement package of 45.6 cents an hour."

The USW seeks approximately the same settlement for aluminum workers as the union got for steelworkers last week.

Authority Claims Warning Given on Housing Shortage

The present critical shortage of rental housing cited Monday by the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce was anticipated a year ago by the Kingston Housing Authority.

In September of last year the authority predicted such a shortage and urged the city and general public to take action to prevent it.

IN COMMENTING today on the shortage, George E. Yerry Jr., chairman of the authority, said that a plan to meet the anticipated shortage had been presented to the Common Council in March but that "no action has been taken along lines recommended by the Kingston Housing Authority. The whole program is still in the hands of the Common Council."

Last summer the local housing authority recommended a public housing program, an urban renewal program and a complete replanning of the city of Kingston.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS followed an exhaustive survey of the area in June and July by the State Division of Housing. The survey had been requested by the local housing authority.

The urban renewal plan was recommended by the authority, particularly for the downtown section, and was presented to the city, Mr. Yerry said.

HE SAID TODAY that considerable funds were now available to effectuate such a plan. A total of $1,700,000 has been allocated to the city by the state for additional public housing. This money would be available, along with certain federal funds, if the city contributed $75,000 in funds or comparable services, Mr. Yerry explained.

A total of $600,000 would be available for urban renewal.

He said plans had been drawn up showing what one particular plan could do for the downtown section. The plan envisaged the complete rebuilding of the section, including medium income rentals, apartment houses and other types of residential buildings constructed by private capital which has been pledged and is available to the Kingston Housing Authority, Mr. Yerry told The Freeman.

THE LABOR agreement, terms of which were settled last Friday, will raise U. S. Steel's labor costs by 7.6 per cent, for the first year of the three-year contract, Blough said. There will be a further increase of 5 per cent in each of the remaining two years, he added.

In addition to labor costs, he cited recent price increases in number of materials required for steel making. However, he added, "raising prices isn't a simple mathematical job. We're in the midst of it."

"We're in the midst of a decision on time or money."

Seeks to Show McKeon Violated Basic Rules

Parris Island, S. C., Aug. 1 (P)—A stocky, quietly scathing major today sought to show that Marine S. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon was a poor troop leader and violated basic military rules.

Maj. Charles B. Sevier of Jacksonville, Ill., government prosecutor, fired questions at the pale, 31-year-old former drill instructor with the insistency of a tank—while he is—shooting for effect.

McKeon is facing a general court-martial for leading a 74-man platoon of recruits into tide-swept waters of Ribbon Creek marsh, where six drowned.

After McKeon marched his men into the water "to teach them discipline," Sevier wanted to know, "you gave no order to stay in column?"

"No, sir," said McKeon. "They were in a staggered column."

"You never told them to close up and cover down (stay one behind the other at an interval of 40 inches)?"

"No, sir."

"You didn't know what condition your platoon was in, did you?"

"They were in more or less of a column," McKeon answered.

A key point in the court martial is whether the recruits would have drowned had they followed McKeon's order of "Follow me."

Defense attorney Emile Zola Berman of New York city contends the recruits, only five weeks in service, wandered away from the column to their deaths.

A basic tenet of the military on night exercises is to keep in close contact with the man in front.

McKeon completed his testimony at 10:32 a. m. (EDT) and the court waited expectantly the arrival of the marine commandant, Gen. Randolph McC. Pate, to appear as a witness. He was due to take the stand to testify

Company Says Hailstorm Project Saved Orchards

A hail-bearing storm of July 24 near New Paltz—one of 13 storms entering the Hudson valley area in the last month—was thwarted by the Weather Modification Company from creating devastation to orchards in its path.

The severity of the storm was reported in a summary of the hail suppression program released today by T. J. Henderson, project meteorologist.

The report said "although some hail actually fell in a few isolated spots near New Paltz, if the weather modification program had not been in operation, the storm would have gouged a path east of Kerkonkson to some point east of the Hudson river and devastated a number of orchards along the way."

The storm was immense in size with cloud tops reaching to more than 35,000 feet, the report added.

Six of the 13 storms which entered the area since the program went into operation were identified as hail-bearing, prior to entering the target area, and "the others contained various intensities of rain."

Although some hail fell in the target area during two of these storms the area hit was about one tenth of one per cent of the total area being protected by the hail suppression program, Mr. Henderson said.

He indicated that steps have been taken to prevent a recurrence of hail in the target area and at present about 75 silver iodide ground generators have been strategically placed to protect those growers contributing to the program sponsored by Hudson Valley Crops Services, Inc.

In addition a P-40 aircraft equipped with an airborne silver iodide generator is stationed at the Dutchess County Airport in the event it is felt that certain weather conditions prevent the ground generators from doing an adequate job. Many of the

Operator Licenses for 7,500 Ulster Drivers Expire Soon

Renewal period for approximately 7,500 three-year operator licenses in Ulster county which expire September 30 began today at the Motor Vehicle Bureau office, 32 Main street, it was announced by Deputy County Clerk Ralph Post.

Mr. Post reminded all operators whose licenses expire on that date that the local office is open 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., and closed Saturday during August.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner Joseph P. Kelly reported that about 1,000,000 operator licenses run out in the state on September 30. He urged every operator to check his own license for expiration date.

Licenses to be issued in this renewal period will be valid

Occupation Discussed, Is Report Will Not Ask U. S. To Join Action

London, Aug. 1 (P)—An authoritative British source said today Britain is ready to use force if necessary, including the reoccupation of the Suez Canal zone, to keep the canal open to world shipping.

The informant is an official of Prime Minister's Eden's government. But he declined to be identified by his name or position.

HE SAID BRITAIN has not asked—and does not intend asking—the United States to join in any military measures which this country may take as a result of Egypt's nationalization of the canal.

Britain has, however, called upon the United States to give political support in the event military action is taken, he said. France and some British commonwealth countries were described as backing this country's action.

There was no official confirmation from either the British Foreign Office or the U. S. Embassy.

THE INFORMATION was given out as U. S. Secretary of State Dulles talked with Eden, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau at a hurriedly arranged "work luncheon."

Dulles, who only Sunday said he had no plans to come here, arrived from Washington by plane this morning. He is thought to have been sent by President Eisenhower to urge moderation upon the French and British.

The United States broadly supports Anglo-French objections to the canal nationalization and also seeks ways of guaranteeing free passage through the canal—which Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser has pledged to do.

BUT THUS FAR the United States has balked at endorsing decisions which it feels might lead to a shooting war.

The talk of force probably contains some element of trial balloon pressure by the Eden government on Britain's western allies and on Egypt.

But Eden personally is being pushed by a large group of his own supporters in Parliament to stop what they call the scuttling of British interests in the Middle East. In France, too, there is strong pressure for action against Nasser because of his

Italy Will Build New Andrea Doria

Rome, July 31 (AP)—The Italian government decided today to build another Andrea Doria "of new and modern design" to replace the great transatlantic liner lost last week.

The ship would take at least 2½ years to build and probably would cost as much or more than the first liner, nearly 30 million dollars.

The decision to build the new liner was reached at a closed-door meeting of the cabinet which heard a brief summary of Capt. Piero Calamai's report to the Italian consulate in New York city on the sea disaster.

Budget Minister Adone Zoli said the cabinet authorized the treasury to transfer the necessary funds to Finmare, Italy's government-controlled merchant marine trust.

The new liner would be about 3,000 tons larger than the old 29,083-ton Andrea Doria, and would bear the same name, he said.

Chicago's Polio Rate Up Despite Salk Inoculations

Chicago, July 31 (AP)—Chicago's polio rate, highest in the nation, continues to rise despite an all-out vaccination drive.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the city's board of health, announced yesterday that 63 new polio cases had been reported over the weekend. That brings Chicago's total for this year to 422, compared to 391 cases reported in all of 1955.

DEATHS FROM the disease reached 11, only two under the total in 1955.

Bunden stressed that the Chicago "outbreak" has not reached epidemic proportions. The number of cases must reach 35 per 100,000 population to be classified epidemic, he said. The 422 cases to date represent about 11.2 per 100,000.

Bunden declined to say whether the epidemic incidence has been reached in the west side area where 215 of the cases have been reported. He said, however, the number of cases among children of 5 years and younger was 248, or 67 cases per 100,000 of that age group—nearly double the epidemic level. This group, said Bundesen, had virtually no benefit of Salk vaccine shots.

IN THE GROUP where inoculation has been concentrated—that between 6 and 14 years—the rate of infection this year has been 18.5 per 100,000.

Meanwhile, two new inoculation clinics were opened last night for the benefit of parents who can only bring their children after working hours. This is the latest extension of an all-out drive in which all hospitals and health department neighborhood stations have set up inoculation clinics to fight the disease.

The Chicago Medical Society, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and many civic organizations are participating in the inoculating program. The American Medical Assn. has joined in the appeals to parents to have their children inoculated.

SINCE THE stepped up shot program began three weeks ago, Bundesen said 406,348 doses of Salk vaccine have been distributed to clinics, and 121,331 inoculations have been made by health department personnel.

Bunden said Chicago is in no danger of running out of the Salk vaccine. He said a 135,000 dose shipment arrived yesterday from the Illinois State Health Dept.

Lung Cancer Ends Boy's Chance in Soap Box Derby

Valparaiso, Ind., July 31 (AP)—Doug Hoback won't be in the starting lineup of the annual soap box derby at Akron, Ohio, Aug. 12.

Lung cancer killed the 13-year-old youth and also the dream of his lifetime.

DEATH CAME Sunday in a Valparaiso hospital, just 24 hours after he had failed to qualify for the Akron race in regional finals at Gary, Ind.

Hoback's racer veered into a curb and put him out of the race. He watched the remainder of the race from a wheelchair after treatment for minor injuries.

A day later his cancer condition took a turn for the worse and he was taken to the hospital where he died.

BUT, IN death unfolded the story of young Doug's courage and determination to win the soap box event, the dream he treasured more than anything else since learning he had little time to live.

"I'll tell you what kind of boy Doug was," said his doctor yesterday.

"The night before the regional soap box race in Gary, he had his mother call me up so that he could have a blood transfusion that night to get pepped up for the race. But, I just couldn't do that."

"THAT'S SUMMING him up in a nutshell," said Dr. Leonard Green, a Valparaiso physician.

"He was a hopeless case from the beginning—since last December—when we found he had lymphosarcoma, or an incurable malignancy. But, he had lots of will and plenty of stamina."

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Going back into the 1660's when Kingston was called Wildwyck they certainly had their trials and tribulations according to Van Buren's "Ulster County Under the Dutch." Marten Kregier arrived at Wildwyck July 4, 1663. The colonists were disheartened, fearing another Indian attack so they had shipped most of their cattle, some, 100 heads to Fort Orange.

The soldiers had received their last ration. Food was scarce. There were not over 100 men capable of bearing arms. Nine of the Negroes were wounded and six were at the Redoubt on the river. On top of that Kregier seemed to have considerable trouble with the villagers. Many refused to furnish teams and wagons to bring up supplies from the river. "Some refused to work for the company; some gave for answer, 'if another will cart, I also shall cart,' some said, 'my horses are poor, I cannot cart,' others said, 'my horses have sore backs,' etc.

Tjerk Klassen de Wit, although a magistrate, threatened to turn some soldiers out of a small house they occupied. He said he had hired it, although he neither had possession nor procurement for it. Kregier told him that the soldiers would be removed on condition that he, as a magistrate, would have them billeted in other houses as the men could not lie under the blue sky, as they had been sent here by the chief government for the defense of settlers."

There were various disturbances with the Indians with captives taken on both sides and from time to time exchanged with great trouble. The stockade was in need of repair. The Court ordered that each farmer should set up new "palisades" in front of his lot. The others, being inhabitants or burghers, occupying 39 lots in the village itself, should repair and place new palisades "from water gate along the curtains unto the lot of Arent Pietersen Tack." They must be at least 20 feet in circumference and 13 feet in length. "Every person must appear Monday, October 22 at 7 o'clock, at the gate near Hendrick Jochemsens to proceed with the work."

Lieut. van Couwenhoven was busy exchanging captives. On November 29 he brought six of the captives back for which he took a captive squaw and two children, 30 strings of wampum, one piece of cloth, two cans of brandy, one half an anker of brandy, 15 strings of wampum, three yards of duffel, and 10 pounds of powder.

He said that he had given wampum to another Indian to look up the child of Albert Heymans (Roosa) and would bring all the other prisoners within three days. He returned on December 2, having two children with him, for which he was given an Indian child and three pieces of cloth. He could not return the remaining captives, five in number, because they were at the hunting grounds of the Esopus and he could not find them. He had an Indian looking for them. Two were in his vicinity. The squaw who kept them would not let them go because she was sick, had no children and expected to die. Then he would get them and Roosa's daughter, who was also at the hunting grounds. . . . Not one was killed. Not one injured. All were finally returned. Van Buren concludes, "A most remarkable fact to reflect upon, when forming our estimate of the nature of the red man." June 4, 1644 was proclaimed a day of thanksgiving because of the return of all the captives, according to records Stuyvesant wrote the Directors of the company.

LASSOING THE LITTERBUG

The recent campaign to rid the streets and front yards of litter helped to remove the offensiveness of the condition of our city and resulted in very favorable comment from local residents and visitors alike. The wholehearted cooperation of storekeepers, householders and children made it possible.

One of the principal causes for the unsightly condition of streets was the careless handling of waste material while removing it from containers and trucking over the city streets. Another was the outright negligence on the part of storekeepers and householders in placing out rubbish in containers without proper covers. Improper bundling of material placed on sidewalks also added to the litter.

In recent weeks, however, there has been a noticeable laxity, which we trust is temporary.

It also might be well to call attention to those people who think streets and highways are their own private wastebaskets. These litterbugs toss refuse out of their car windows and think nothing of it. If heavy fines were imposed on these litterbugs, they soon would desist this slovenly practice. There's nothing like a get-tough policy along with the public mood to bring about the solution of a problem.

WHERE TITO STANDS

Marshal Tito, the Yugoslav president and dictator, may be moving toward the Russian position on some issues, but on one he stands firm. He announces that Yugoslavia will not recognize the Communist government of East Germany. As far as he is concerned, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's West Germany is the only government authorized to speak for all Germany.

This supports the belief of some observers that Tito does not propose to side with either Russia or the West, but to maintain a middle position. This refusal to commit himself greatly increases his bargaining power. That is annoying to the United States, but there is this consolation, that it must be equally annoying to Moscow.

Now that summer is upon us the women can amuse themselves by dropping into the stores to see the cold weather fashions.

SPEEDUP IN COURT

Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr.'s progress report on cutting down the backlog of cases in federal courts is encouraging. It also points clearly to the fact that much remains to be done.

Speaking at a conference of United States attorneys, Brownell said that litigation piled up in federal courts has been reduced by 31 per cent since September, 1954. That sounds fine. But this leaves the courts with more than 50,000 cases and matters still pending.

Calling attention to this is not intended to detract from the credit due Brownell and his associates in the Department of Justice. The attorney general was quite right to speak of "tremendous advances" that have been made. It is to be hoped that there will be no letdown in this effort, however. For justice delayed too long is justice only half done.

THE INGENIOUS FRENCH

Americans are sometimes inclined to the notion that ingenuity is a special quality developed on this side of the Atlantic. Not so, as a recent development in Paris, France, has once again proved.

It seems that in Paris, too, they have a traffic problem. Such a problem that two big daily newspapers, France Soir and Paris-Presse, have had trouble making deliveries on time.

But there is a river, the Seine, that winds conveniently through the ancient city. So bundles of France Soir and Paris-Presse are now being whizzed out to the fringes of Paris by motorboat on the Seine. It saves two hours, and it must be a fine sight to see the news of the world go roaring past Notre Dame.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
THE ROOTS OF HATE

It is difficult to understand how anyone can hate his native land, its traditions, its way of life, as much as William Z. Foster, top Communist of the United States, displays in his book, "The Twilight of World Capitalism." Foster hates with passion, with unreasoned passion. Apparently, early in life he revolted against his environment, his family and his religion. Foster tells of it himself: "My break with religion had a considerable material effect upon the course of my life. My mother had long wanted to make a priest of me, and her wishes were seconded by Father Joseph O'Connor, a noted orator of St. Theresa's Church in Philadelphia, and a friend of mine. He offered to send me to a Jesuit college to be educated for the priesthood. He and my mother were both disappointed, however, when I let it be known to them that my reading had already taken me far and away beyond the control of the Catholic Church."

This is what William Z. Foster wrote about the United States in 1949 when this nation had just emerged victorious from the most perilous war in its history: "American imperialism is like a monstrous, all-consuming spider. It has sucked up most of the available gold supplies of the capitalist world and hoarded them away at Fort Knox; it has made nearly every capitalist nation in the world its debtor; it is stripping the various capitalist nations of their foreign markets, of their economic strength, and of their national independence. It has set up a more or less definite political control over all the important capitalist countries in the world. Now it is stretching out its claws for the U.S.S.R., the European new democracies, and the colonial and semi-colonial countries, in the hope that it can overwhelm them and devour them at its leisure. This is the parasitic, cannibalistic role of American capitalism in the world today."

This is not an alien living in the United States in sheep's clothes. These are not the words of a foreigner who came to this country because he believed that its streets were paved with gold and was disappointed that he had to work for a living. These are words of a native born American, educated in our schools, spending his childhood not in the slums of our big cities but in the New England town life of Taunton, Massachusetts. It is difficult to understand what influences, in school, at home, in church made him despise the land of his birth. Further, in the same vein, he wrote:

"The United Nations is a casualty of American imperialism's drive for world empire . . . the United States, unable to utilize the U.N. effectively for its power policy game, proceeded to bypass that organization altogether in many important matters. Among these were its infamous Truman Doctrine of fomenting civil war in Greece and other countries; its Marshall Plan to bring all the capitalist countries of Europe under its economic, political, and military control; its arbitrary dumping of the Yalta and Potsdam agreements; its cultivation of reactionary regimes in Germany and Japan in order to use these countries as military bases against the U.S.S.R.; its arbitrary interference in the Chinese civil war on the side of the feudalistic Chiang Kai-shek regime; its brutal subjugation and exploitation of the peoples of Latin America; and the formation of the military alliance, the North Atlantic Pact. . . ."

Again, he said: "The top men who are running our government, including President Truman, are tools of Wall Street. They don't want peace with the U.S.S.R.; their objective is world domination by the United States, which they are convinced they can accomplish by destroying the Soviet Union. . . ."

Harry Truman has been called many names, but tool of Wall Street certainly does not fit. Here is an irrational but passionate anger that breeds such thinking and such language and one would imagine that it would be self-defeating. Nevertheless, many trained minds have followed Foster's leadership and have risked their honor, their careers, and in a few instances, their lives, for the cause of which he has long been the American representative. They could not have believed what he wrote, but they accept the disciplines which his party imposed. Such men have taken the Fifth Amendment like parrots by order of the party which Foster heads.

That Body of Yours

THE PRICE OF MEDICAL FREEDOM

There is so much to be said both for and against "state medicine" that I have not written about it to date. However, there is an editorial in the Journal of the American Medical Association that I feel is worth passing on to my readers in its entirety. It states, "With the medical profession in many lands practicing under governmental control, it behooves us to inquire into the causes of dissatisfaction of the non-medical public with the present state of medical care and to convince that public not only that it is receiving better medical care than it ever received before but also that the quality of this care will deteriorate under any system of state medicine."

"One of the underlying dissatisfactions that exists in spite of spectacular advances in medical knowledge and skill centers around the lack of personal attention given by the modern physician as compared with that given by the old family doctor. Although this is regrettable, it is to a certain extent inevitable. A similar contrast may be seen in the virtual disappearance of the corner grocer, who knew all his customers by their first names and gave an occasional lollipop to a child, and the modern supermarket. Just as the more impersonal supermarket can give better service to a larger number of persons, so can the modern physician or medical team give better medical care than the old family doctor, no matter how sympathetic he may have been. The public is coming to appreciate this but it cannot be blamed for wishing to hold onto the personal relationship. The physician should never lose sight of the fact that no matter how scientific his treatment or how full his day, his results can be greatly enhanced by an effort to meet the needs of his patient that are not strictly medical."

"Every patient who seeks medical aid is frightened, and one of the most important responsibilities of the physician is to allay the patient's fear. Often without knowing it the hurried impersonal manner of the physician, far from allaying fear, aggravates it. Because patients are becoming better informed medically, much can be done to allay fear by taking time to explain to the patient the nature of his illness, the reasons for the treatment recommended, and the results obtained or expected. Every physician is essentially a teacher and one of the most important attributes of a teacher is to be able to gauge the patient's ability to understand and apply what he is told. It is equally important to use a positive rather than a negative approach."

"Medical freedom is worth preserving, but it can only be preserved at the price of satisfying the reasonable demands of the 'consumer' and creating in his mind an appreciation of the fact that preservation of the system of free enterprise under which modern medical care has reached its present position is his best insurance of continuing advancement in medical knowledge and service."

As I said above, there is much to be said both for and against state medicine but I do feel that this editorial is worth our serious consideration.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington—(NEA)—Voice of America is going in for television in a big way.

Five years ago there only seven countries offering their people TV. Today there are 29, with 150 TV broadcasting stations and an audience of around 40 million viewers, increasing daily.

Robert E. Button, new chief of the U. S. Information Agency's international broadcasting, had 16 years of commercial radio and TV experience before entering government service.

For the past year he has been deputy director of VOA and has helped build up its TV programming. It will show a 400 per cent increase this year over last. In the past six months some 450 TV programs have been put on film. About 10 per cent were original productions. Others were news reels, special events, documentaries, and "how to do it" educational programs prepared for International Cooperation Administration, which is in charge of technical assistance for newly developed countries.

THE NEWSREEL shows are prepared in three editions for Europe, Latin America, Near and Far East. Sometimes the films are sent out with script for sound to be dubbed in by native language announcers under close monitoring.

Most successful of the USIA-TV programs has been the "Report on America" series of half-hour, once-a-month shows.

It presents Americans in their everyday life. They're human beings with the same problems as other people all over the world.

Introduced in Britain, it is now being put into French, Italian, Spanish for Latin America and Portuguese for Brazil.

Most of the programs are on requested subjects. Instruction in personal hygiene, baby care, how to dig a well and how to mark up an election ballot have been covered.

The opportunity to reach more people, faster, for educational TV is to be exploited to the maximum.

AMERICAN COMMERCIAL radio and television industries are giving USIA full non-profit cooperation in all these productions. In return, it has been found that Voice of America programs are developing big markets for U. S. products abroad.

Export record sales have boomed since VOA began telecasting jazz and popular music shows. Two record companies have offered to buy time on VOA, but it can't be sold.

The TV programs promote sales of TV sets and broadcasting equipment. Also, private producers of movies, radio and TV shows are finding that their films and recordings can be adapted and resold on foreign markets.

Radio is still 75 per cent of the Voice of America, however, because that's the medium that can jump the Iron Curtain. But he thinks the Curtain may become a Venetian Blind.

Soviet Russia lifted the jamming of British Broadcasting Corp. Russian - language programs during the Bulgarian-Khrushchev visit to England and hasn't put it back on. The satellites still jam everything.

"BUT THERE'S something going on," says Button. "If the Russians would stop jamming Voice of America broadcasts and VOA could start competing freely for the attention of Communist listeners, it might be possible to plant some very explosive seeds. There's a big interest in America and a growing skepticism about communism in all these countries."

One new-type program VOA will introduce this fall will be beamed at Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia.

It will be a husband and wife team, breakfast conversation show. They will discuss the day's news pro and con. It will demonstrate the freedom of wide open argument in a typical American family, where there is no fear of anyone listening in and reporting what is said to the secret police.

So They Say..

There is no need to change the old truths. They are still good—still valid. But what we need to do is to dress them up in modern garb. The old truths must still guide us. We must keep them as our foundation. But we must add as new truth comes to light.

—Rev. George A. Fallon, Lakewood (O.) Methodist Church.

When I was president and a gentleman called on me and afterwards talked about what we discussed, he didn't get in any more.

—Ex-President Truman on why he wouldn't tell what he and Pope Pius XII discussed in private audience.

Sextra Special.
—Princess Margaret sums up performance by singer Eartha Kitt.

Questions—Answers

Q—Which state is one of the three principal world sources of sapphires?

A—Montana ranks with Siam and Australia as a source of sapphires.

Q—Why is a wandering singer of love songs called a troubadour?

A—The word is of French origin and first meant inventor. The singers made up their own stories.

Q—How does sapwood differ from heartwood?

A—In old trees, the sap moves through the xylem in the wood beneath the bark. This part of the wood is called sapwood. The part through which the sap does not move is called the heartwood.

Dulles' Message on Suez Is 'Ships Must Go Through'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 1 — "The ships must go through!" That's the word Secretary of State Dulles, at the behest of President Eisenhower, has carried to the London conference on the seizure of the Suez Canal.

But Nasser has already retreated. He has decided to accept checks instead of cash for the canal. That means the argument over who ultimately gets the proceeds of the checks and when is something that an international tribunal or a court somewhere will have to decide in due time. If, however, there is a seizure of a British or French or American ship and a forced interference with passage through the canal, the naval units of Britain and America will take whatever action may be required to obtain their release or to assure their continuous passage through the canal.

THE UNITED STATES is as anxious as Britain and France to avoid anything that could involve a war and certainly will issue plenty of words of caution to the conferees in London about taking any precipitate action. The immediate task of Mr. Dulles is to make sure the ships keep going through the canal because, if oil from the Arab countries is shut off, it might mean that gas rationing would have to be under official consideration here in the United States two or three weeks hence.

The gravity of the whole situation, therefore, can hardly be defined because there are so many turns for the worse that the friction with Egypt could take. For one thing, the temperamental Nasser may commit acts of desperation to steady his own internal position, which could be weakened if international tension increased. There are also some psychological factors to be considered. The United States has tried to steer a middle position as between those who have "colonial" roots and those who have had none in the Middle East. Just as happened at the time of the crisis in Iran, the United States does not want to be placed in the position of opposing the principle of nationalization. At the same time the canal property, it is recognized, has various foreign owners and a vital seaway is involved. If someone else besides Nasser were at the helm at Cairo, the attitude of the major nations would be different. The danger of a blockade of a strategic waterway has often been discussed by military men, but it was not believed that Nasser would threaten such a closure and take the bold course he has just adopted.

THE ARGUMENT in London is that a show of force and firmness is essential lest the whole Middle East situation crumble. America is faced with an entirely different problem. Here everything has been on the peaceful side. For one thing, Congress has just gone home. There is no treaty obligation at stake which has to be met by the executive branch of the government under specific provisions already approved by Congress, as is so often the case in similar situations. Mr. Eisenhower does not wish to act alone. If the crisis gets to the point where he must take military steps, he will ask Congress for the necessary power. The expectation, however, is that the whole matter will drift along for months in an effort to find some legal process of adjudicating the claims to the funds and that the ships will go through the canal in the meantime.

Only some untoward act by the Egyptian government, therefore, now can bring on a military climax of any kind. The Western allies will not take the initiative.

INFORMATION available here indicates that the Egyptians are well aware of the local tangles and the fact that they will not get money to build the Eswan dam unless there is an equitable settlement of the whole problem of ownership of the Suez Canal. This controversy could drag on for a long time, as did the Iranian affair which Mossadegh stirred up.

Nervousness over the outcome is manifest not merely in Washington and London but in Moscow. The Communists could, of course, needle Nasser into further complications with the West. It is noted here that a grave situation on the border of Burma has been precipitated by the Communist Chinese at this particular moment. The State Department is deeply concerned over the sudden change in Red China's attitude. There is puzzlement as to how India's Nehru and the other Southeast Asia countries now are going to react to the renewed use of force by the Chinese Communist after all the recent professions of peaceful purpose. It is a dangerous time in the "cold war."

Switch in Men and Parties

Convention Picture Changed By Stassen, Kefauver Moves

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—What a switch in men and parties!

Ten days ago, so far as is known, Harold E. Stassen and Sen. Estes Kefauver still yearned to move their furniture into the White House. Now Stassen says he has given up on the presidency permanently. Kefauver has given up on it this year, at least. Nine days ago this month's political conventions looked like a picnic for the Republicans, a cat-and-dog fight for the Democrats. Now the opposite may be true, thanks to Stassen and Kefauver.

WHEN THE SUN came up July 23 this was the picture: 1. Stassen, a presidential candidate in every election since 1944, wasn't running this year. He didn't have a chance anyway. President Eisenhower was running. There was no reason to think Stassen still didn't have the bug for 1960.

Meanwhile he seemed content with his job as Eisenhower's special assistant on disarmament.

2. The Republicans' professional politicians seemed to have everything so neatly arranged that the delegates to the convention, opening Aug. 20, would have trouble finding something to do until the time came to rubber-stamp the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket again.

BEFORE SUNDOWN July 23 Stassen began talking so loudly and long that the Republican Convention may turn into a contest over the vice presidency.

Stassen said private polls showed Vice President Nixon would be a "burden" on the ticket—he says now Nixon would lose millions of votes and should step aside in favor of Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts as Eisenhower's running mate.

Republican pros jumped him in a hurry, even suggested he resign. Instead, he talked more. Now Eisenhower has permitted him a month's leave to go out and stir up Republican delegates against Nixon.

Then on Sunday Stassen said he is not only not a candidate to be Eisenhower's running mate this year but has forever taken himself out of consideration for the presidency and vice presidency.

YESTERDAY, before the sun came up, this was the Democratic picture: A hot convention, opening Aug. 13, with Adlai Stevenson and Kefauver the front-running contenders for the presidential nomination, with New York's Gov. Averell Harriman and others scrambling for it, too.

Stevenson had a good edge in indicated strength but Kefauver, who practically exhausted himself in 1952 and again this year in pursuit of the Democratic nomination, still hoped, or so it seemed, he'd be tapped.

Yesterday Kefauver, suddenly and unexpectedly, announced he was quitting the race in favor of Stevenson and would give him his support. He said he realized he didn't have a chance.

Harriman says he's still running. So there may still be a fight at the convention. And a struggle over a civil rights plan, between northern and southern Democrats, could bust the convention and the party wide open.

But at the moment things look calmer for the Democrats. Kefauver and Stevenson had nice things to say about each other. This was a switch from their bitterness in the primaries. Kefauver weeks ago had said he had been unpleasant about Stevenson only because "I got mad and lost my head."

Try to End Strike

Schenectady, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Efforts were being made today to end a strike by 3,500 workers at a General Electric plant that makes steam-turbine generators. The workers walked off their jobs yesterday in what a union spokesman said was protest over appointment of a new man to a job the workers felt should have gone to an older hand. But Local 301 of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE) said it had not authorized the strike. The company said the walkout was "completely irresponsible."

Murder Suspect Seized

Chicago, Aug. 1 (AP)—Lawrence Neumann, 28, wanted in the shotgun slaying of three persons, was captured today in an alley on Chicago's near west side. Neumann was taken without a struggle, police said. Two hundred police surrounded a three-mile square area searching for the fugitive gunman after two detectives earlier reported exchanging shots with a man they believed was Neumann. The bespectacled ex-convict eluded police squads for about two hours before a woman resident of the area discovered him crouching on her back porch.

Fair's Free Attraction Stars TV's Midwestern Hayride

Bonnie Lou, Bobby Bobo and the Hayseeds are among the "Stars from the Midwestern Hayride TV Show" at the Stadium of the Orange County Fair this year. The Hayride TV shows is free to the public attending the Fair on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings.

Two Orange County square dance sets will also appear in competition at each of the evening presentations. Bonnie Lou will select a winner every evening, as well as the first, second and third prize finalists at the Friday night entertainment.

Due to the new policy of presenting a famous TV Country and Western musical free of any additional charge, it is expected that many fans from New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania will be in attendance for most of the eight performances.

"Stars of the Midwestern Hayride TV Show" may be seen at the Stadium (Grand-Stand) afternoons at 2 o'clock and evenings at 8 P. M.—ADV.

Gamma Globulin Extremely Short

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (P)—The State Health Department has termed gamma globulin supplies "extremely limited" and set restrictions on their use.

The department said the blood derivative should be used against measles, German measles and hepatitis.

The health agency said gamma globulin was more effective in combating those diseases than against infantile paralysis. The department said Salk vaccine was "much more effective" against polio.

The department recommended that gamma globulin be administered to: Children under three who had been exposed to measles; persons of any age exposed to hepatitis and women exposed to German measles while in the first three months of pregnancy.

The state distributes gamma globulin to local health agencies. It comes from human blood donated by the public.

Army Captain Sought, GI Payroll Missing

Monterey, Calif., Aug. 1 (P)—Fort Ord authorities enlisted police and FBI aid today in a search for an Army captain who is missing with his company payroll of $11,830, all in small bills.

His 1956 Chevrolet car was found beside the Old River road about three miles north of Fort Ord, partially concealed in bushes.

Authorities said the Captain's uniform and pistol were in the machine.

The soldiers haven't been paid yet, the Army said.

$4 Million Grant Is Given for Dentistry

Chicago, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Journal of the American Dental Assn., said today the allocation by Congress of nearly four million dollars in dental research grants means "the long-awaited expansion of research in dental schools is now at hand."

"Certainly the need to expand and intensify dental research can no longer be questioned," the journal said, adding:

"Essentially the entire population of the United States suffers from dental disease. The country's gross dental bill grows greater each year—it reached more than a billion and a quarter dollars in 1955."

The journal lauded the "leadership" of Sen. Hill (D-Ala.) and Rep. Fogarty (D-R. I.) for their aid in the action of Congress.

President Signs Foreign Aid Bill

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed a bill supplying $3,766,000,000 to 54 nations for the next year to reinforce their armed services and economies in the cold war with communism.

But the measure, signed yesterday, contains two features the administration found objectionable during the congressional fight on foreign aid.

Most important, the amount of money was $1,093,405,000 less than the President wanted, a cut Eisenhower maintained would mean America's security and free world partnership "will be seriously impaired."

The other stipulation fought unsuccessfully by the administration stops further arms aid to Communist Yugoslavia. This was inserted by senators led by members of Eisenhower's party, Republican leader Knowland (Calif.) and Bridges (R-N.H.). Yugoslavia, however, still can obtain military equipment on order, plus future material for maintenance and spare parts. There also is a provision allowing Yugoslavia $15 million dollars in economic aid.

Reds Cutting Prices

London, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Moscow radio quoted Deputy Trade Minister A. Sharov today as saying prices will be reduced immediately on a variety of Soviet consumer goods. Items such as cigarettes, toys, vacuum cleaners, cameras, television sets, fabrics and pleasure boats were mentioned.

Father Osterman Named Pastor of St. Peter's Church

REV. JOSEPH OSTERMAN

The Rev. Joseph Osterman, who, as a young priest, had served as an assistant at St. Peter's Church, this city, will become pastor of the church next week, it was learned today.

Father Osterman, who will succeed the late Rev. Joseph A. Geis is due to leave Livingston Manor, where he has been stationed for some time, early this week.

Father Geis, who had served as pastor of the church, since 1944, died July 2.

Before his assignment to the Livingston Manor parish, Father Osterman had served as an assistant at St. Nicholas' Church, Second street, Manhattan. He had been an assistant at the local church for about seven years before that.

Reds Convicted, To Appeal Cases

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—Six second-string Communist leaders have been convicted after a three-month trial in Federal Court on charges of conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the U. S. government by force and violence.

THE DEFENDANTS have announced they will appeal. Judge Alexander Bicks set sentencing for Sept. 17, and the defendants were continued free in bail.

The maximum penalty is five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The jury of eight men and four women, which was locked up in a hotel over Monday night, brought in its verdict yesterday afternoon after 11 hours of deliberation. The judge told the jurors: "You have done an excellent job."

THOSE CONVICTED are Alexander Trachtenberg, 72, former Communist party national committeeman; George Blake Charney, 51, acting chairman of the New York state Communist party; Sidney Stein, 40, assistant national labor secretary; Fred M. Fine, 41, public affairs secretary; William Norman, 53, executive secretary of the New York state party, and James D. Jackson, Jr., 31, southern regional director of the party.

Trachtenberg and Charney were convicted at a previous trial, but won a new trial after Matousov, a turnabout witness, signed an affidavit that he had perjured testimony against them.

Woinoski Still Fair Following Freak Accident

The condition of Albert Woinoski, 18, of 70 Murray street, who suffered injuries in a freak accident Monday night on the River road, Port Ewen, was reported "still fair" today at Benedictine Hospital.

The youth suffered lacerations of the face and possible skull fracture, it was reported.

Undersheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg of the Ulster county sheriff's office said Tuesday that the mishap occurred when a 1939 sedan operated by Thomas Van Eiten, Jr., 16, of 11 Abbey street, was proceeding south on the River road when the driver mistook house lights for an oncoming car and pulled sharply to the right.

In doing so, he struck an unoccupied car parked off the side of the road, forcing it into a small building owned by Mrs. F. Walsh of Fort Lee.

Another youth, Pat Sangaline, 16, of 21 Derrenbacker street, was treated at the hospital for head injuries but was not admitted.

Damaged Liner Inspected

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—A House subcommittee today inspected the liner Stockholm as its first step in an investigation of the disaster that sent the Italian liner Andrea Doria to the bottom of the sea last week. As the nine subcommittee members looked over the crumpled prow of the Swedish ship in a Brooklyn drydock, Rep. Herbert C. Bonner (D-N.C.), chairman of the subcommittee, said "we are interested in whether Americans are traveling on foreign ships with the maximum of safety."

amount... in the public interest... and that it superseded "the interest of any group of dealers." Richard Wiles, attorney for the Syracuse Milk Producers cooperative, also opposed a stay. He said farmers needed help from either a federal or state order.

on training methods at 1:15 p. m. (EDT).

The four-star general arrived on the post without fanfare at about 11 a. m.

In the course of his testimony, McKee said, "If I had thought any one of them kids would drown I would never took them in."

The day after the drowning, McKee testified, "I would have signed anything. I would have walked to the gallows that morning."

McKee also told the court he had not been in Ribbon Creek before he led the night march.

Before McKee left the stand, Col. Edward L. Hutchinson, president of the seven-man court-martial board, questioned McKee on the difference between teaching discipline and talking disciplinary action.

"Did you believe that your battalion commander held you responsible for teaching discipline?" the colonel asked.

"Yes, sir," McKee replied. "Did you believe he held you responsible for taking disciplinary action?"

"No, sir," McKee said.

Earlier, McKee was asked by Sevier of he tried to maintain discipline and morale by slapping his men.

The taut, strained former drill instructor admitted yesterday that he had half-heartedly slapped three recruits. He also said he considered the discipline of the platoon poor.

Under cross-examination by Sevier, McKee was asked "did you slap men into the position of attention? Was that the way you maintained discipline, by slapping recruits?"

Company Says

generators have already been relocated to more strategic spots, others will be added in the areas where the frequency of hail storms is the greatest.

More than 563 hours of ground generator burning time have been logged since the contract was started on July 1. Keith Larkin, pilot for the Weather Modification Company, reports more than seven hours of flight time logged during hail conditions.

The most recent hail storm seeded by the project was on July 24 when many large cumulus cells began to build west of Kerhonkson in the late afternoon. Beginning at 4:30 p. m., due to the tremendous size of the storm, Mr. Larkin was called into action and on six separate seeding runs through the storm area he reported fragments from one-half inch hailstones in the cockpit of the aircraft.

At the radar site, two miles east of Red Hook, Mr. Henderson reported a definite breaking up of hail cells as they moved toward the western boundary of the target area where many ground generators are located. This breaking up of hail cells matched almost perfectly the operation of the ground generators and the seeding runs of the aircraft. The action continued until late that night when the last ground generator was turned off at about 10 p. m.

Personnel of the Weather Modification Company are continuing their detailed study of local weather patterns throughout the Hudson valley with this increased knowledge will further improve and perhaps expand the protection offered by the program, the report said.

7 Hospitalized

in a car operated by Mr. Meyerowitz, it was reported. All the rest were passengers in a 1953 sedan operated by Mrs. Kinsey.

Troopers Charles Bundschuh and J. Moynihan reported that the Meyerowitz car, leaving the bridge at its western end, failed to make a sharp right turn and was in collision with the Kinsey vehicle which was entering the bridge.

Mr. Meyerowitz was arrested on a charge of operating a vehicle at a dangerous speed, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Patsy Conforti of Highland and fined $25.

Time of the accident was fixed at 9:10 p. m.

Mr. Meyerowitz is employed at a summer camp in Highland Mills, it was reported.

Crippled Convicts Face Bread, Water

Buford, Ga., Aug. 1 (AP)—Forty-one crippled convicts face a bread and water diet after mass leg breaking demonstrations against the heavy work load at Georgia's "Little Alcatraz."

The convicts, all bad actors sent to Rock Quarry Prison from other camps in the state, included 27 white and 14 Negro convicts.

Another youth, Pat Sangaline, 16, of 21 Derrenbacker street, was treated at the hospital for head injuries but was not admitted.

Panel Probes Crash

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—A fact-finding panel of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) today opens hearings aimed at finding the cause for the Grand Canyon collision of two airliners which killed all 128 persons aboard. To pieces together the facts on U. S. Commercial aviation's worst disaster—for which there were neither witnesses nor survivors—more than 30 representatives of the United Air Lines and Trans World Airways and of the Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA) were listed.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—The stock market turned irregular early this afternoon following a slight rise in the morning.

Pivotal stocks fluctuated from fractions to around a point.

Steels were off a bit in the wake of yesterday's advance but aircrafts still clung to the upside. International oils showed slight losses. Metals were mixed.

Airline shares showed a string of fractional advances.

must take into account cost increases, commercial factors, problems of our customers and the competitive situation with other materials."

U. S. Steel's record earnings in the first half of this year amounted to $208,550,441 or $3.66 per share of common stock. This compared with $177,877,960, or $3.10 a share earned in the first half of last year and the previous six-month record of $192,319,665, or $3.35 a share, set in the second half of 1955.

THE 1956 SECOND QUARTER

ADVERTISMENT

Listed below is the proposed list of assessments, computed at 36% of the appraised value, as determined under the recently completed revaluation program. Taxpayers may determine the appraised value by multiplying the assessed value by 2.77.

Every effort has been made to maintain a uniform standard of value on all properties in order to correct the gross inequalities which have existed in the tax roll heretofore.

We respectfully request all taxpayers to give earnest consideration and a fair examination to the results of this program. While the revaluation program was intended solely to equalize all values, it has, nevertheless, resulted in a substantial overall increase in the assessment roll. This will result in a corresponding decrease in the tax rate, subject to budgetary changes.

Any person who has good reason to believe that his property has been inequitably assessed and who wishes to obtain further information prior to Grievance Day, which will be August 14, 1956, may make an appointment for this purpose by calling the Assessor's Office, tel. 1993. Such requests for appointments should be made prior to August 8, 1956.

Mr. Kahn was naturally indignant at such brazen effrontery. He called in his attorney and demanded that he take steps immediately to have the honored name of Kahn removed from the sign, even if it cost $5,000 to do it. A few days later Mr. Kahn drove by the same store again, to see what had been done about the offending sign. He found it had been changed to

Pray for Rain

Orlo Vista, Fla. (P)—Mrs. Myra Bean, who has a 12-acre watermelon patch here, believes in praying for rain when her crop needs water. She said a shower watered her patch while not a drop fell on a 1,000-acre melon field surrounding her property but owned by another grower. "It pays to pray," says Mrs. Bean.

Suggests Job Bar

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—Rep. Rees (R-Kan.) urged today that President Eisenhower act quickly through executive order to bar from the federal payroll all individuals whose loyalty is in doubt. Voicing disappointment that Congress did not enact a new loyalty-security program, Rees urged action by Eisenhower until Congress works out permanent legislation. His proposal was made in a letter to Philip Young, Civil Service Commission chairman and Eisenhower's adviser on personnel management.

Tillson

Tillson, Aug. 1—A pot luck supper, sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Tillson Volunteer Fire Company will be held Saturday at 6 p. m. in the firehall. The supper will be in the form of a welcome to newcomers, and those attending are requested to bring a dish of food.

Twelve members of Tillson Volunteer Fire Company marched in the parade at New Paltz Saturday, ending the annual convention of the Ulster County Firemen's Association. One truck from the district was also in the line of parade.

Immigration Is Up

Washington, Aug. 1 (AP)—More immigrants were admitted to the United States in the first six months of 1956 than in any other similar period since 1929, the immigration service said today. Commissioner Joseph M. Swing of the Immigration and Naturalization Service said the number admitted in each of the six months averaged about 26,500. In a report to Atty. Gen. Brownell, Swing said about 38,000 of those admitted came in under the provisions of the Refugee Relief Act.

Actor Must Pay

Los Angeles, Aug. 1 (AP)—Actor Keefe Brasserie, 32, who complained in court that "every time you turn around it costs money," has been ordered to pay $650 a month for support of his estranged wife, Norma and their daughter. Superior Judge Elmer D. Doyle ordered the payment yesterday despite Brasserie's testimony that he was so broke he had to borrow $2 to get to court for the hearing.

Harriman on Record

New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman is telling Democratic National Convention delegates and alternates via a photograph record that "we've got the Republican party licked already and they know it." "Now we've got to lick the front man for the Republican Old Guard, candidate Eisenhower," Harriman adds on the disc. Harriman's campaign headquarters here began mailing out the records about 10 days ago to boost his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Pollack's Body Found

Simcoe, Ont., Aug. 1 (AP)—A man's body, washed up on the north shore of Lake Erie Sunday, has been identified as 28-year-old theatrical producer Gordon Pollack of New York City. Mrs. Anna Pollack, the dead man's mother, made the identification yesterday. She told police she recognized her son by a ring he was wearing. Pollack and his wife, Norma, disappeared last April while flying their private plane from Detroit to New York.

Yells of Ride 'em Cowboy at Fair

It has been many a moon since Orange County folks have seen a real western rodeo and wild west show.

On Sunday, Aug. 12th the Orange County Fair will present The Black Diamond outfit in the wildest of all western shows and rodeos for just two performances. The afternoon thrills will start at 2 o'clock and the evening repeat will be at 8 o'clock.

Oh, and we almost forgot to mention the clowns and the trick riders, but you can be sure that they'll be there.—ADV.

Middletown Fair
Will Feature
Dance Contest

Six area square dance sets were "swinging their partners" in rehearsals this week for the county championship to be determined at the Orange County Fair at Middletown next week. Fred Germain, Jr., general manager of the fair, said the contest was limited to half a dozen sets. Two will compete on Monday night, Aug. 6, two on Tuesday, and two on Thursday, with the three leading sets to dance out the championship on Friday.

Most of the sets will provide their own callers, but the music and the judging will be by the Midwestern Hayride TV troupe, which also will feature the fair's stadium entertainment on the same four afternoons and evenings of the week. Under a new policy this year, there will be no stadium admission charge for the Hayride program, Mr. Germain added.

THE SQUARE dance contestants will be guests of the fair during their stay and will be guests at dinner in the Grange Restaurant of Richard Milburn, chairman of grandstand events. Final details were being polished by the Fair Association for the opening of the nine-day exposition Saturday. The fair will continue through Sunday, Aug. 12.

Mr. Germain said the State Police would be on hand again this year, with their tent headquarters under Sgt. Ernest Goodspeed, commandant of the Middletown trooper station and a veteran of two decades of fairgoing.

The big fairground will be wired again with a complete public address system which will serve for general announcements as well as for helping lost persons find strayed members of their families or parties.

Children will be admitted without tickets on each of two children's days, Aug. 6 and 10, and will be eligible to win a kiddie automobile each day, the manager noted.

—ADV.

We have all seen an automobile stunt show but how about three thrill shows all at one time!

On Sunday evening, August 5th at 8 o'clock the 116th Orange County Fair will present not one, but three thrill shows in competition.

The boys will do a new one called "The aerial criss-cross" and that will be only one of 33 smashing, crashing, wrecking events of the International Daredevil contest.

This thriller may be seen for one performance only on the evening of Sunday, August 5th. Stadium adult admission is $1.20 and the youngsters pay 60c. Annex prices are 30c and 80c.

50 Foreign Pupils
Begin Bard Program

Annandale-on-Hudson, N. Y., Aug. 1—More than 50 foreign students will begin a six-week orientation program on the campus of Bard College today. They are all graduates of colleges and universities in their own countries and the majority of them will be studying in the United States for a year on grants given by the Educational Exchange Program of the Department of State.

Ranging between 22 and 30 years of age the visitors come from 23 different countries, including Indonesia, India, Brazil, Japan, Iran, Spain, Turkey, the Philippines, Korea, Greece, and have been chosen because of outstanding intelligence, interest in democratic concepts, qualities of leadership and social and professional usefulness. After completing their orientation course at Bard, the young men and women will attend various graduate and professional schools throughout the country.

IN ADDITION to receiving instruction in such subjects as American English Speech, American Civilization and Literature, each student will spend the fourth week of the Bard program living with a local family. Through this close association with family and community life, members of the group can better understand and adapt themselves to American life.

"Home Week" is planned for August 19 through August 26 and residents of Dutchess, Columbia, Greene, Ulster, Orange, Albany and Putnam counties and nearby Connecticut are urged to participate by inviting one or more students to spend the week with them.

Martini-Fuoco Wedding Is Announced

MRS. LOUIS F. FUOCO

(Tom Reynolds photo)

Miss Rose Marie Martini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martini, Sr., of 65 Clinton avenue, became the bride of Louis Francis Fuoco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saverio Fuoco of 60 Hanratty street, Sunday, July 22, at 2 p. m. in St. Mary's Church. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Edward J. Farrelly.

Theodore Riccobono, organist, played the traditional wedding selections.

Patricia Keefe, sang, "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria," and "Mother at Thy Feet is Kneeling."

Vases of white gladioli and I pons decorated the altar and white satin aisle bows marked the pews.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of rose points lace over bridal satin, fashioned with a ruffled bodice, long tapered sleeves and a sequined skirt. Her bouffant skirt featured an apron front of lace over tiny tiers of nylon tulle at the back which swept into a brush train. A bridal cap of matching lace, sequin embroidered and edged with seed pearls, secured the French illusion hair veil.

The bride carried a lace covered prayer book trimmed with Georgiana orchids and stephanotis with white satin ribbon showers.

Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Ann Martini of 65 Clinton avenue. She was attired in a gown of lilac colored velvety styled with a fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt posed over tiered net. She wore a plateau headpiece of silk flowers with a circular tulle veil. Miss Martini carried a colonial bouquet of orchid pompons and yellow carnations with orchid tulle.

Attending in included Mrs. Valerie Martini, 55 Lafayette avenue, Mrs. Sally Wilt, 134 North Front street and Mrs. Joyce Winchell of Lake Katrine. Their gowns were identical in styling to that of the honor attendant except in sun yellow. They carried colonial bouquets of orchid pompons and orchid tulle.

A reception was held at the Alpine, DeWitt Lake, for approximately 120 guests.

Mrs. Fuoco, who is a graduate of Kingston High School, is employed by Montgomery Ward and Company.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Kingston High School, attended Hartwick College, Oneonta and served two years with the U. S. Marine Corps. He is employed by IBM in Kingston.

For her wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass., the bride wore a beige and black sheath dress with matching duster. She also wore beige accessories and a white orchid corsage. When Mr. and Mrs. Fuoco return from their trip, they will reside at 175 TenBroeck avenue.

Good Taste
Today

By EMILY POST

(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

KERCHIEVES FOR CHURCH

A letter today reads: "Isn't it in bad taste to go to church with a scarf tied around one's head, or worse yet, a handkerchief sitting on the top of one's head held in place by bobby pins? I have noticed an increasing number of young people attending church services dressed in this fashion and to me it is very undignified. I would appreciate your opinion on this matter."

An unbecoming fashion, I must agree. If a woman away from home wants to go into a church, she may properly cover her head with a scarf or a handkerchief.

Returning Hospitality

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter's mother-in-law recently paid her a two-weeks visit. During this period I entertained for her several times as did some of my friends. She left the other day without saying good-bye. Was it my duty to call her on the day of her departure to say good-bye, or should she have called me?

Answer: She should have paid her party visits on everyone who gave her a party before she left.

When Employer Enters Office

Dear Mrs. Post: I am secretary to the vice president of a rather large company. I have my own private office and on occasion my employer will come in to talk to me about something or call me to do. I would like to know if it is necessary for me to rise or may I remain seated at my desk. I am in my late twenties and he is in his early sixties.

Answer: No, certainly you may remain seated.

Celery

Dear Mrs. Post: When stuffed celery is served as part of a salad, may one eat it with the fingers?

Answer: If the stalks are full length, it is best to eat them with the fingers. If they are cut in inch-length pieces, you have to eat them with a fork.

Small weddings are popular. Mrs. Post has written leaflet E-8, "Today's Typical Wedding," describing the procedure. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Denise Lor, Russell Arms and Zippy at Fair

For one night only, Wednesday evening, August 8th, the Orange County Fair Stadium Show headlines Denise Lor, Russell Arms, Zippy the Chimp, and Ernie Rudy and his orchestra, featured on the Jackie Gleason Band Show. For these two special performances the Orange County Fair has set a low price of one dollar for seats in the Stadium or fifty and seventy-five cents for patrons of the annex.

Myers and Gresham Appear in Woodstock

Michele Myers and Edith Gresham thrilled the audience at opening night at the Woodstock Playhouse Tuesday when they appeared in "Anastasia." Miss Myers was reported so overwhelmed with the intensity of the role that it took her 15 minutes to feel like herself again after the performance.

The play will be given through Sunday with curtain at 8:40 p. m.

Next at Woodstock will be the "Solid Gold Cadillac" by Howard Teichmann and George Kaufman. Anne Ives will be starred in the leading role of a seemingly befuddled old lady who rocks a meeting of a giant corporation's stockholders when, as owner of 10 tiny shares, she asks some highly explosive questions.

Gerald E. McGonagill, Jack Wilson, Herbert Ratner and Heywood Hale Brown will portray the corporate evil-doers, and Harry Mehafeff will be seen as the former president of the corporation, turned honest after becoming a government official in Washington, who rides back to power in alliance with the amiable little stockholder. Among others in the large cast will be Michael Myers and Jacqueline Adair.

Turhan Bey, the Turkish motion picture star and Violet Heming, the Broadway actress, are co-starred.

Also in the cast are Paula Laurence, Vladimir Sokoloff, Stefan Schnabel, Jonathan Harris, Dana Elcar and G. Albert Smith. The action of the play takes place in a private lounge of a great resort hotel in pre-World War I Austria-Hungary.

If all goes well with Miss Vanderbilt's play, it will go to Broadway. Edward Chodorov adapted the play which was written by Ferenc Molnar. George Quick will present it to Hyde Park Playhouse. It was written and directed by Edward Chodorov with sets and lighting by Jack Gaynor.

Bellaire Offers

'Anastasia' Tuesday

With "Moon Is Blue" opening tonight at Bellaire Playhouse in Highmount, the cast is already rehearsing its new presentation, "Anastasia" for Tuesday, August 7. It seems that Bellaire Playhouse is fast on the road to becoming an established theatre in the Highmount community. With three productions to date, they have received highest praise from admittedly small audiences. Many residents from Kingston have attended these productions.

Ballet in Final Program At Jacob's Pillow

The final program by the San Francisco Ballet will be on view at Jacob's Pillow, near Lee, Mass., during the coming week. The west coast dancers have attracted the greatest press coverage of any similar attraction to have played the festival in the past, and both critics and public have been unanimous in applauding the talents of both soloists and corps on the two preceding programs.

The farewell program will be on view evenings at 9, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, and matinees at 4, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. "Con Amore," originally scheduled, has been replaced in favor of last week's popular "A Masque of Beauty and the Shepherd." This work and "Le Gourmand" have choreography by the company's director, Lew Christensen. The third ballet, "Apollo," is by George Balanchine and will be danced through special permission of the New York City Ballet with which the coast company maintains an exchange agreement.

"Le Gourmand" will open the program. Described as a Moliere-esque fable, the ballet is in classic style and composed of a series of formal diversissements which constitute a dance "menu." Each course of a meal is offered in its balletic equivalent. The ending, a pas de deux for brandied peach and cafe royale bears the trade mark of theatrical surprise which typifies the Lew Christensen-James Graham-Lujan collaborations.

Utilitarian Farming

Bozeman, Mont. (AP)—Dairy-men faced with an electric power failure take heed. Wilson said the only extra equipment needed is a hose long enough to reach from the vehicle to the milking machine stall cock and hose connection.

Notice has been given by one proprietor to musicians present-ly engaged that their services will no longer be needed after October first. Others have de-cided to eliminate entertain-ment, the spokesman said.

Being in a resort area, a member of the association said he believed the early closing might seriously affect the resort business.

He pointed out that Dutchess county has a 2 a. m. closing hour on Sunday mornings. "This might mean much of our business on Saturday nights will go to Dutchess county where places will be open an hour longer," he said.

Other nights the 1 a. m. closing hour would be observed in both Ulster and Dutchess county, he pointed out.

Taxpayers Calling For Reduction Planks

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—A statewide organization of tax-payers called on the Democratic and Republican parties today to include a tax-reduction plank in their national campaign plat-forms.

Garth A. Shoemaker of Elmira, president of Citizens Public Ex-penditures Survey Inc., sug-gested both parties adopt a plank reading:

"It shall be the policy of the (Democratic or Republican) par-ty during the next four years to limit federal expenditures to such an extent that the tax burden can be substantially reduced without unbalancing the federal budget."

Shoemaker advanced his sug-gestion in letters to each GOP and Democratic delegate from New York state to the presi-dential nominating conventions.

his backers "wholeheartedly" to support Stevenson, and added he foresaw a possibility Stevenson would win the nomination on the first ballot. Stevenson Man-ager Finnegan said he expects the "vast majority" of Ke-fauver's delegates to switch to the 1952 nominee.

Harriman, however, quoted Kefauver as having told aides of the governor by telephone "that he believed I would get at least half his delegates."

"From indications I have now received," Harriman added, "I believe it will be more."

Kefauver himself, however, denied today that he had said Harriman might get at least half of his delegates.

The retiring candidate ap-peared on the CBS television show "Good Morning With Will Rogers Jr." and talked after-ward with a CBS newsmen.

Asked about Harriman's re-port, Kefauver said he "said no such thing."

Asked about a rumor that he might be attorney general in a Democratic administration, Ke-fauver said he "would not leave the Senate for a cabinet post."

HERALDING 'KING AND I'—Reade's Community Theatre, Broadway, went all out publicizing "The King and I," opening to-day at 7 p. m., featuring Deborah Kerr and Yul Brunner. Mickey Dohnken in Sudan chair chats with Martin Burke (both theatre employees) about the "greatest motion picture of the year in Cinemascope" to be shown on the new seamless, giant-wide screen at the Community.

operated Panama Canal be inter-nationalized.

Eisenhower replied that con-ditions in the two cases are not the same. The great problem now, he said, is to make sure that the Suez is preserved as an international waterway. Doing that, he added, is vital to the U. S. economy and welfare.

CONGRESS — The record of the 84th Congress, which ad-journed last Friday, leaves him with mixed emotions. The per-formance of the lawmakers pleased him in some respects, left him regretful in some, and frankly disappointed him in others.

Some of the legislation he pro-posed in his January State of the Union message was enacted. Eisenhower commented without going into any detail. On the other hand passage of some ad-ministration measures—such as the farm and highway construc-tion bills—was delayed. And on still other bills, Congress took no action whatever. In the lat-ter category, he listed a school construction measure and his health insurance program.

Continuing, Eisenhower said that while there was a whole list of legislation which Congress passed up, that was one of those human things. He said he is not completely satisfied about the record of Congress.

RACIAL — A reporter told Eisenhower that in connection with political primaries in the south there has been "violent talk of the race issue." The re-porter asked whether the Presi-dent feels that candidates who engage in such talk render a disservice to the country.

Replying, Eisenhower said he had not been aware of such talk, didn't know it was going on, and that he deplored it. The Presi-dent called such activity a very grave error and a disservice to the country.

Eisenhower went on to say the path of human progress is not along the path of extremism or along the path of hatred, but is along the path where people of good will say here is a way we can get together.

PANAMA Conference—At the outset of the conference before he turned the session open for questions, Eisenhower recalled that he returned last week from a conference of the presidents of the American republics at Pan-ama City.

He said it was a unique visit for him and that he derived tre-mendous knowledge and under-standing from the meeting.

ber 10. Hirschberg then moved for a further postponement. The November 10 date was set since the court chambers will be in use during October by the Supreme Court.

Briefly Told

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—The State Motor Vehicle Bur-eau today began accepting ap-plications for renewal of drivers' licenses that expire Sept. 30.

About one million permits are involved. The renewals, running through Sept. 30, 1959, cost $3 each.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Neil Hellman, president of Hel-man Enterprises, has revealed that the New York Department of State authorized the use of the name "Thruway Motor Ho-tel" for four luxury motels his firm is building near inter-changes of the state Thruway.

Hellman told a reporter yes-terday he planned to open the first unit, near the Washington avenue interchange here, by April 1. Construction began last week.

He said he was not ready to name the sites of the other three units.

Hellman said signs advertis-ing the motels would not be on state property.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Stanley Killin of Albany and Garson Zausmer of nearby Mc-Kownville were appointed today as assistant administrative di-rectors of the state civil service department.

Alexander A. Falk, president of the Civil Service Commission, said Killin ranked first and Zausmer second in a competitive examination among 28 depart-ment employees. Salary for the jobs ranges from $10,250 to $12,220 a year, depending upon length of service.

TB Boiler Bids Date Is Aug. 13

Due to the steel strike and inability of contractors to figure price and delivery dates, the time for submitting bids for a new boiler, oil burning equip-ment and changes to the present boiler location for the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital has been extended until August 13 at 11 a. m.

Bids were solicited by Joseph Gentile, county purchasing agent, to be opened at 3 p. m. on July 31. However due to the recent steel strike contractors were un-able to figure the job and asked for additional time. Recent in-creases granted when the strike was settled will be reflected in an increased price of steel, the amount of which is unknown at this time.

trial purposes and a very mod-ern shopping center. The over-all plan involves a cost of about six million dollars, mostly pri-vate capital, according to Mr. Yerry.

Such a plan "would have re-stored considerable tax value to the city and would have in-creased three times, roughly speaking, the number of families and made many rental units available."

Mr. Yerry called attention to the fact that this is the third anniversary of the opening of the low-income garden-type apartment project at Colonial Gardens with its 98 units. All 98 have been occupied continuously since the project opened.

IN A STORY carried in The Freeman Monday Albert C. Kurdt, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, said the shortage of rental housing was becoming critical. He based his estimate on the inquiries being received by his office.

He said many new residents are having great difficulty find-ing places to live, pointing out that many persons were not in a position to purchase homes be-cause of the nature of their em-ployment or training here.

Homebuilding in last year. This does not make the construction activity outlook bright, she reported.

The major part of homebuild-ing (public and private) during June 1956 occurred in the New York city suburban area (in-cluding urban and rural areas), where a total of 3,827 units were authorized as against 3,968 during June, 1955. Nassau county had 821 for June 1956, compared to 1,423 in June 1955; in Suffolk county permits were issued for 1,651 new units in June 1956, as against 1,292 during June 1955; Westchester county had 588 in June 1956, as against 1,109 in June 1955; Rockland county had 267 units for June 1956, as against 144 for June 1955.

In New York city new resi-dential starts (public and pri-vate) totaled 12,103 units for January-June 1956, which in-clude 1,877 units in one-family houses, 2,082 in two-family structures and 8,144 in multi-family structures. Manhattan led New York city boroughs in the number of units started with 3,539 followed by Brooklyn with 2,974, Queens 2,888, the Bronx 2,494 and Staten Island 208.

The dollar value of public and private residential activity in New York state in June 1956 was 26 per cent below that of June 1955. For the same com-parable period the dollar value of other new building, largely non-residential, decreased one per cent, while that of addi-tions, alterations and repairs decreased 24 per cent. For the first six months of this year compared with the same period in 1955, the dollar value of resi-dential construction was down 21 per cent, that of other new building was 15 per cent higher, and that of additions, alterations and repairs decreased by 8 per cent.

Charged With Speeding

Dorothy A. DeCicco, 38, of 136 Delaware avenue, was arrested at 4:30 p. m., Tuesday by motor-cycle Officer Floyd Krom on Clif-ton avenue on a charge of speed-ing. The case was put over until Saturday to allow her time to get counsel when she appeared in court today.

Held For Hotel Clothing Theft

William Housand, 41, who, po-lice said, had been a guest at the Holland Hotel, 608 Broad-way, was arrested early today on a third degree burglary charge, for allegedly having taken clothes from the room of another resident of the hotel.

Housand was held for the grand jury after preliminary hearing before Special City Judge Harry Gold later today. Attorney John E. Gotelli repre-sented the district attorney's office.

Police said Henry Bernard, the other resident of the hotel, claims he caught the defendant leaving the building with cloth-ing taken from his room. Hou-sand, it is claimed, wore a pair of Bernard's trousers at the time, and had other clothing in a bag. He was headed for New York, police said.

Says 84th Congress Worst in 34 Years

Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Rep. John Taber, a congressman for 34 years, says the recently adjourned 84th Congress was "the worst I ever went through."

He made that observation to a reporter yesterday while charging Rep. Clarence Can-non (D-Mo.), chairman of the House Appropriations com-mittee, with trying to "turn the atomic business into a public power proposition."

Taber is the ranking Repub-lican on the appropriations com-mittee.

He said Cannon had issued "a false and scurrilous report" that the Atomic Energy Commission had fallen down on develop-ment of electric power from nu-clear energy.

Taber said "our atomic en-ergy program is going along well." He said a 60,000-kilo-watt power plant near Pitts-burgh would begin operation early next year.

He said a Russian plant had so far been able to produce only 5,000 kilowatts.

If you have not had any of the physical or mental conditions listed, you do not need to get a physician's statement.

The bureau's action on license renewals in cases where there is an ailment or disability de-pends on when it occurred.

If the affliction occurred since the last license was issued, a new license will not be issued until the case has been reviewed in the Bureau's Safety Division in Albany or New York.

If the affliction occurred before the last previous license was obtained, the license will be issued if accompanied by a physician's statement but the case will be earmarked for later review.

Issuing offices are required to refer to the Safety Division of the Bureau, in Albany or New York, all applications where there is a history of epilepsy.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON
SPOKEN AT THE GRAVE

The orations at the funeral of "good old Joe" in March, three short years ago, were made by Premier Malenkov, Deputy Premier Beria and Foreign Minister Molotov.

Beria has since died of lead in the head, and the other two face the twilight. Bulganin and Khrushchev were silent that day.

Malenkov said of old Joe: "His works will live forever—His name ranks with the greatest men in the history of mankind—Marx, Engels and Stalin."

Beria: "Our party now closes its ranks. It is united and invincible. Great Stalin left us a legacy that will be treasured as the pupil of one's eye."

Molotov: "This infinitely dear man will live in our hearts forever. The fame of his great works for the good and happiness of the workers of the whole world will live through the ages."

And so forth. Fame, fickle fame!

Bulganin and Khrushchev now spit out the corpse of the man who was their leader in crimes unspeakable. They rose to high office as members of the Soviet cabinet only by the will and approval of the man they now say they despised.

Brave lads, eh! They say they were helpless to speak while Stalin lived. Yet millions of Russians went to death or Siberia because they did resist the living Stalin.

Neighbor, how long will the brave Russian people follow these self-convicted cowards?

his 1954 sedan, traveling north on the Old Kingston Highway about a mile and a half north of New Paltz, went off the east side of the road and struck a tree, it was reported by Highland state police.

He was taken to the air force base by a Stewart Field ambulance.

Trooper Wallace Mahan issued a summons to the youth as an unlicensed operator. It is returnable before Justice of the Peace Richard W. Lent of New Paltz.

Battle Harbour, center of Labrador's fishing industry, probably took its name from the Portuguese "batal," meaning boat.

The Mature Parent

Fret Over 'Unwanted' Child Is Needless Apprehension

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Writes Mrs. H., "Our daughter's doctor has told her she's pregnant. She is terribly upset. She's got a good job, and she and her husband wanted to postpone a child! She keeps saying she isn't ready for this baby. Her rebellion worries me. Isn't it dangerous? Don't psychologists say that unwanted babies become 'problem' children?"

Some psychologist do say this. They are probably the same ones who get so excited and sympathetic over children's first day of school. They reserve their tenderness for the six-year-old girl's fear of new experience, having very little for the 26-year-old girl's fear of hers.

To reduce Mrs. H.'s apprehension for her unborn grandchild, I quote Dr. Hilde Bruch, a former pediatrician who is now a noted child psychiatrist.

In her sensible book, "Don't Be Afraid of Your Child," she says: "It has been my experience that mothers who carry a child through nine months of pregnancy want their children, even though there may be overt reasons and motives against bearing and raising a child at this particular time. The fact of not wanting a baby in the beginning of pregnancy does not prevent the development of warm maternal feelings in young mothers, particularly when they in turn find tolerant support from those nearest them."

It's not "tolerant support" of this young woman to threaten her with psychological bogey man of a "problem child" as punishment for her fearful feelings toward a still theoretical experience.

So-called "wanted babies" are a comparatively modern luxury. Until the development of planned parenthood, women bore many, many unwanted babies. Surely they didn't all become "problem" people.

Though we can't check on the "wantedness" of such men as Socrates, Lincoln, Edison and Dr. Freud himself, the chances are that they and other benefactors of the human race were not all widely welcomed by their mothers. The chances are that, like grownups, the unwanted but beguiling babies had to earn their welcome.

So let's keep our balance to help steady this daughter at a time when she's struggling to absorb the shock of discovering a marriage can produce a child. Only hostility will translate her understandable disturbance as final rejection of her coming child. Love will look upon it quite differently.

Love will see her disturbed protests as a trusting search for our ability to dispel her fear of new experience—and to permit the joy and pride waiting behind it to break out like the rising sun.

Area Problems Will Be Heard At Farm Forum

A series of information-gathering meetings conducted by the State Department of Agriculture and Markets aimed at improving the competitive position of New York producers on the market have been scheduled according to Daniel J. Carey, commissioner.

For this area a meeting in Ulster County Court House is scheduled for August 21.

The meetings were motivated by information received by the department of the increasing difficulty New York producers are meeting in their efforts to compete market-wise with growers from other areas.

The department hopes that information gathered from these sessions will enable them to map out a modern, long-range program designed to help New York farmers meet competition.

The meetings will be arranged to permit farmers and persons interested in agriculture to present their views. Those who would like to address the group must contact Commissioner Carey at the department in Albany. They will be notified by return mail of the time during the meeting when they will be heard. All who are interested may attend whether they plan to speak or not. Since there will be varying views on all segments of agriculture the meetings should prove beneficial to all who attend, Commissioner Carey said.

Local Jehovah's Witnesses Group To Attend Parley

Kingston Congregation of Jehovah Witnesses is sending approximately 30 delegates to the district convention at RPI Field House, Troy. The delegates will be arriving for the opening sessions Thursday with plans to participate in the entire program ending Sunday night.

Members of the local congregation have volunteered to assist with some of the convention activities. Some will help in the cafeteria set up to feed the 3,000 delegates expected. Others will assist in publicizing the feature event of the assembly program, a Bible discourse of the subject, "Why Permanent Peace Will Come In Our Day." This talk will be given by S. P. Kraker, a Watchtower representative from world headquarters, Brooklyn.

DELEGATES FROM KINGSTON will be staying in various private homes throughout Troy and vicinity. Because hotels and motels could not accommodate the thousands expected, a group of 178 volunteers have been canvassing the city listing rooms in private homes.

Ernest F. Kidd, presiding minister here, announced that arrangements have been completed for an immersion service Saturday, Aug. 4. Candidates from the New England area will be baptized in a nearby swimming pool after special services at the field house. All sessions of the convention are free and open to the public. Everyone is welcome and no collections will be taken at any time.

Cottekill Church Vacation Bible School Scheduled

"The King's Adventure" will be the theme of the Cottekill Reformed Church daily vacation Bible school which will be held Aug. 6 to 10. There will be classes for all ages. Each day's Bible story will be correlated with a study of the knights and ladies and castles of the Middle Ages.

There will be illustrated stories, games, songs, hand work, and contests each day. The boys and girls will be under excellent supervision and all parents are invited to send their children. Classes will begin in the Cottekill Reformed Church at 9 a. m., with dismissal at 11:30.

Rehabilitation Group To Meet August 7

The August meeting of the Rehabilitation Committee of Ulster County TB and Health Association will be held at the home of Miss Florence Cordts on Lindsley avenue extension Tuesday, Aug. 7 at 7:30 p. m., according to Mrs. William McNamee, chairman.

Following the business session Miss Katherine Murphy, executive secretary of the association will give a brief report on her recent trip to Europe.

Members are invited to come early in order to enjoy the Hudson river view from the Cordts' residence by daylight.

All Was Well

Bardonia, Ky. (AP)—Jim Avis posted two youths as guards for the night at his tavern when he saw a bolt had been removed from a window and figured burglars were preparing for a call. At three a. m., pretty late for any burglary work, the guards decided all was well and went home. That's when thieves showed up and made off with seven or eight cases of beer and the cash register, containing a small amount of money.

AMERICAN MENU

Spanish Recipe Gives Ham Added Summertime Zest

EXCITING to taste as a Spanish dance is to the eye, cold ham a la Valenciana is a refreshingly different summertime dish.

By GAYNOR MADDOX,

NEA Food and Markets Editor In Madrid, young men from all parts of Spain attend the Professional School of Hostelry. There they learn the fine art of hotel keeping. Of course, cooking is one of the most important subjects.

From the recipe files of that Spanish school, we selected this perfect dish for summer eating.

COLD HAM

A LA VALENCIANA

Spanish Olive Oil Dressing (2 cups dressing)

One-half cup vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 clove garlic, mashed, 1 1/2 cups olive oil.

Combine vinegar, salt, pepper and garlic in a 1 1/2-pint jar. Stir to dissolve salt. Gradually add olive oil, stirring or beating to blend. Store, covered, in refrigerator.

Salad (4 servings)

One 10-ounce package frozen, French-style green beans, 2 hearts lettuce, 8 thin slices boiled ham, 2 hard-cooked eggs, lettuce leaves, radishes, gherkins.

Cook green beans as directed on package. Drain and mix with 1/4 cup Spanish olive oil dressing. Chill.

To serve: Cut hearts of lettuce into squares and spoon a little of the olive oil dressing over each. Wrap a slice of ham around each lettuce heart and arrange down the center of an oblong platter. Make 4 lettuce cups and fill with marinated green beans. Arrange on platter. Garnish with sliced, hard-cooked eggs, radishes and gherkins.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Cold ham a la Valenciana with radishes, eggs and pickles, Melba toast and rye wafers, orange almond cookies, coffee, tea, milk.

Now everyone can know... THE TRUTH ABOUT MARGARINE

The one major difference in margarine is packaging.

Let's look at the facts. There is no difference in grades of margarine. There may be some slight variations in color, taste or consistency of content. But all packers must conform to the same set of strict government standards.

You might ask then, if there's no difference in quality, why is there a difference in price. And the answer is packaging. Some packers add fancy foil wrappers. Others may use special containers. Some packers need a special packing to keep their margarines fresh. Others may use it for the sake of appearance.

Whatever the reason may be, special packaging adds just one thing to margarine... COST. Yes, the quality is still the same, but you pay more.

So, if you want to save as much as 25% on margarine try HAPPY BOY, the finest, tastiest spread at a realistic price.

HAPPY BOY MARGARINE is delivered so frequently by over 365 distributors that it must be fresh. And because it is fresh, the price isn't padded with a lot of expensive packaging extras. That's why HAPPY BOY MARGARINE sells for as much as 25% less than the other leading brands.

These are the facts and HAPPY BOY backs them up with a full unconditional money-back guarantee. If, for any reason, you are not satisfied, your dealer is authorized to return your full purchase price.

We, at HOTEL BAR FOODS, the makers of HAPPY BOY, have been in the so-called "expensive" spread business for 70 years. Tasty, wholesome foods have been and will continue to be our only business. ALL Routs Poughkeepsie, 10-2, to Reach Sectional Semi-Final

Ferraro Pitches Two-Hitter in Ellenville Duel Locals Play Friday At Port Chester

Mike Ferraro pitched the American Little League into the semi-finals of sectionals by hand-cuffing the Poughkeepsie Americans on two hits, 10-2, yesterday at Ellenville.

The ALL will play at Port Chester Friday at 2 p. m. against an unnamed opponent. A win there would qualify the local small fry for the sectional championship final Saturday at Port Chester.

There are about 20 reservations available to fans on the bus to Port Chester Friday morning. Reservations can be made by calling Willard Thomas, 4550-W. Parents are invited.

FERRARO GOT off to a shaky start, allowing both Poughkeepsie runs in the opening frame. After that he settled down and hurled brilliant no-hit ball the remainder of the way.

Poughkeepsie's runs came on a homer by Joe Randolph with Dan Hickey, who had opened the game with a hit, aboard.

Kington went three innings without scoring, but broke the game wide open with an eight-run barrage in the fourth. Poughkeepsie used three hurlers in the frame in an attempt to quell the locals. The tallies were manufactured on six walks, five hits and three boots. George Tomson batted twice in the frame and stroked two hits. Ferraro, Tom Cioni and Vince Smedes got the other safeties.

LEN BOVEE belted a homer with Ed Corcoran on base in the sixth to cap the scoring. The drive was wall-popped over the fence in left field.

Ferraro struck out eight and didn't walk a player in hurling the masterpiece. Randolph, Steve Saland and Steve Graham twirled for the victims with Randolph the loser.

13,000 Pheasants Will be Released

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—The State Conservation Department has announced plans to put 13,000 full-grown pheasants into fields before and during the fall hunting season.

A spokesman said yesterday the birds would be bought from private game farms. Bids will be received Tuesday.

The spokesman said the department had abandoned a past policy under which birds were released in the summer. He said many had died before the hunting season opened.

Robinson Comes Off Bench To Spark Dodgers Over Braves

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press

Jackie Robinson's an old guy who can still get the job done.

He came off the bench to give Brooklyn's third place world champions the zip they needed to stay healthy after losing seven straight to National League leading Milwaukee, delivering the missing spark and crackle to pop the Braves 3-2 last night with a two-run homer and a tie-breaking, ninth-inning rally.

JOE ADCOCK hit his usual home run against the Dodgers—he has 10 against 'em in nine consecutive games—but he pulled a rock as a base-runner, killing off a ninth-inning rally.

While the Dodgers were struggling back to within four games of the Braves, Cincinnati's second place Redlegs overlooked the last-place New York Giants and stumbled for a two-night doubleheader split, losing 5-1 and then winning 7-3. That clipped only a half-game off Milwaukee's lead, leaving it at two games. Cincy had won five straight.

The fourth place St. Louis Cardinals drew up to .500 again, handing Pittsburgh a sixth straight loss 7-0 on Murry Dickson's five-hitter. And the Chicago Cubs came from behind to beat Philadelphia 9-4 with Monte Irvin driving home five runs.

Cleveland's runner-up Indians showed they were still breathing in the American League "race," closing to within nine games of New York as Early Wynn's three-hitter ended the Yanks' winning streak at six games 5-0.

DETROIT SMACKED Boston 6-4 behind Frank Lary's fourth place tie with the Tigers by defeating Kansas City 5-1. Washington beat the Chicago White Sox 4-3 on a wild pitch.

Robinson, 35 and in his 10th season, had been out of the Dodger line-up for 16 games because of a pulled groin muscle. He got three hits in four trips and appears certain to play third again tonight.

Adcock smacked his 24th home run in the second inning off Carl Erskine, but Jackie did him one better with a two-run poke in the eighth in the bottom half of the frame against Gene Conley. That's the way it stood until the ninth, when with one out, Ed Mathews hit his 20th homer to tie it.

Hank Aaron followed with a double and Erskine gave way to Clem Labine. Adcock was walked intentionally, but Bobby Thomson got a scratch single that loaded the bases. Logan then grounded to Robinson, who threw to the plate to force Aaron as Adcock thundered home, believing catcher Rube Walker was going to try for a double-play on Logan at first. Walker held up on the throw and tagged Joe instead.

PEEWEE REESE opened the Dodger ninth with a single off reliever Dave Jolly and moved to second on a sacrifice. After a walk, Robbie's single brought Pee wee home, giving the Dodgers a 5-0 record at Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium—their home on the "road."

The Redlegs, with thumping Ted Kluszewski sidelined by a groin injury got just five hits in the first game as rookie Joe Mauerer to game his first major league complete game and gave the Giant staff its first since July 8. Art Fowler lost his 10th, giving up three singles and a wild pitch for two runs that clinched it in the third inning. Roy McMillan hit a two-run first-inning homer in the nightcap for the Redlegs and Ray Jablonski homered with two on in a five-run fifth that iced it. Hal Jeffcoat won his third with Buster Freeman's relief help.

THE CARDINALS scored

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

Members, associates and followers of the Cardinals are sizing up about Frank Lane deals they contend dealt the St. Louis club out of the National League race.

The three they squawk loudest about sent:

Brooks Lawrence and another pitcher, Sonny Senerchia, now with Seattle, to the Reds for Jackie Robinson.

Harvey Haddix, Stu Miller, Ben Flowers and Solly Hemus to the Phillies for Murray Dickson, Herman Wehmeier and Bobby Morgan.

Bill Virdon to the Pirates for Bobby Del Greco and Dick Littlefield.

Lawrence has won 15 for the Redlegs and Hershell Freeman, picking him up, saved six more for a total of 21. The Cincinnati club would be nowhere without this pair.

Freddie Hutchinson obviously had nothing to do with the swapping of Lawrence, who was assigned to the Rhineland in late January.

"I saw him in the Pacific Coast League and he looked great," says Lawrence Hutchinson.

"Lane at least might have taken a look at Lawrence in spring training," the older Red Birds complain. "He developed ulcers after winning 15 for us in the last half of the 1954 season."

THE CARDINALS SEE the seven-player swap with the Phillies as having turned out to be little more than Haddix, once more the best left-hander in the NL, for Dickson. And Haddix, who also hits and runs well enough to be used in pinches, is 10 years younger than Dickson.

"A club with a center and right fielder who can't throw is sentenced to the second division," reminds Terry Moore, the Cardinals' remarkable center fielder of happier days who is now a coach. The Red Birds' trouble has been the lack of a big pitcher like Lawrence and outfielders who can hit, close the gap and throw. Even the loyal Hutchinson admits that the passing along of Virdon might have been a mistake.

The bespectacled Virdon was so satisfactory in center field that he was chosen recruit of the year in 1955 and he's batting .300 for Pittsburgh. Del Greco and Charley Peete are highly acceptable defensively, but they can't be hidden at bat even when alternated...

THE CARDINALS, who got off well, point out that none of the barters were necessary until Red Schoendienst, Jackie Brandt, Bill Sami and Littlefield went to the Giants for Alvin Dark, Whitey Lockman, Ray Katt and Don Liddle. Not a few suspected that Trader Lane traded the Cardinals into their first pennant in 10 years with this exchange, made just before the deadline.

While Dark has stood up at shortstop, the Red Birds have lost ground, and the players feel that the brilliant prospect, Brandt, gave the Polo Grounds all the best of it. The New York club also landed a better catcher than it gave away.

The Cards also did not approve of the deal that shipped Alex Grammas and Joe Frazier to the Reds for Chuck Harmon, now with Omaha.

While it required courage for Frank Lane to trade while the club was winning, the Cardinals make it clear that they would prefer a general manager who could stand prosperity.

Stock Racing At Orange Fair

Stock car racing at the Orange County Fair will be promoted by Enne Van Dam this season, with the first race scheduled Saturday, Aug. 4, at 8:30 p. m.

On the closing day of the fair (Aug. 11) the motorcycle drivers race in the afternoon and the stocks at night.

three in the first off Red Menger, getting two on Rip Repulski's single, then wrapped it up with four the fourth. The Bucs used one-time bonus infielders Eddie and Johnny O'Brien on the mound over the last four frames and each gave up just one hit.

Irvin made it easy for the Cubs with a single and double in addition to his 11th home run with two on that overhauled a 3-2 Phil lead in the fifth. Sam Jones won it with Stu Miller taking the defeat.

Wynn, winning his 13th, breezed as Hal Naragon hit a two-run triple in the second and Rocky Colavito socked a two-run homer in the seventh. Johnny Kucks, who has won 14, lost his sixth.

Shirley Campbell Fails in Swim

Toronto, Aug. 1 (AP)—Shirley Campbell came within a mile of completing the grueling 32-mile Lake Ontario marathon swim yesterday but exhaustion overcame the attractive stenographer-model.

Thousands of spectators had lined the waterfront at the eastern entrance of Toronto harbor to cheer the 22-year-old Fergus, Ont., swimmer.

Shirley had been in the water 18 1/2 hours when belligerent currents started pulling her away from her goal. She had jumped into the water at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont.

A sudden squall didn't help matters any as the young girl made her second attempt at conquering the swim. Seven-foot waves sent some of the accompanying boats scurrying for shelter.

Only two persons have been able to make the crossing. Marilyn Bell of Toronto holds the record for the swim at 20 hours, 56 minutes.

Heavyweight Bout

Carter 8-5 Favorite To Defeat Satterfield

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—Harold Carter today was an 8-5 favorite to whip Bob Satterfield in their nationally televised heavyweight bout tonight in spite of the fact that Satterfield outranks him in the class ratings.

The edge goes to the 22-year-old Linden, N. J., puncher on the basis of his March 21 decision over unpredictable Bob. The two fighters battled to a draw in Miami Feb. 28.

SATTERFIELD, WHO has been either kayo victim or victor, is ranked sixth in the heavyweight class, three rungs ahead of ambitious Carter.

A win for Carter would put him in contention for the vacant heavy crown and will explode Satterfield's hopes of getting a shot at Archie Moore for boxing's top-money title. Satterfield, too, is considering claiming Moore's light-heavy title should the aging Moore vacate it for the unlimited weight championship.

Carter's forte in the two previous bouts with Satterfield has been his ability to stay out of range of his opponent's heavier punch.

The younger battler has been noncommittal about his chances while Satterfield has been predicting a knockout triumph for himself.

IN HIS LAST outing June 20, Satterfield, who hails from Chicago, outpointed Johnny Summerlin of Detroit. The defeat snapped Summerlin's 12-bout win streak which included a May 21 decision over Carter.

Television of the fight (9 p. m., EST, ABC) will be blacked out in Syracuse.

Carter has won 18, lost two and has been in two draws. Satterfield's ring career includes 41 wins, 21 defeats and four draws. He's sent 31 opponents to the canvas for the count and was counted out a dozen times.

Saugerties Club Opposes Antler-Less Deer Season

An antler-less deer season in Ulster county was opposed by a resolution of the Saugerties Fish and Game Club Monday night.

The Saugerties vote supports a Federated Sportsmen's Club resolution to member clubs requesting an antler-less deer season.

The county organization had previously drafted such a resolution for presentation at the annual meeting of the New York State Conservation Council, Oct. 3-6, at Lake Placid.

The Saugerties club had on a previous occasion gone on record opposing an antler-less deer season due to the unfavorable conditions created by such an open season in neighboring counties in 1953.

FEDERATION President Carlton B. King, who is a member of the Saugerties club, reported that he had toured the area a short time ago with the Milne Committee checking the location of detached wild forest lands in the Catskill Park. In order that clubs in the federation would be alerted to the action of the committee in disposing of some of the smaller parcels, the county group was planned to arrange a tour of the wild lands in the area, Mr. King said.

He said that it was important that area sportsmen know these detached parcels and if it found favorable and necessary to the area, action be taken to prevent their being sold regardless of the size of the parcel.

A referendum to come before the voters of the state at the election will offer an amendment approving the sale of all detached wild forest lands in the Catskill and Adirondack Parks under 10 acres.

Mr. King pointed out that the proceeds of the sale of such lands would be used by the Milne Committee to purchase other wild forest lands adjacent to the present parks.

Arthur Sperl, fish committee chairman, reported that the proposed bus trip to De Bruce Conservation Camp on the Willowemoc was cancelled due to the lack of reservations from members.

IT WAS ALSO reported that Robert Ohlman, district game manager of the Conservation Department requested permission to tag some of the pheasants the club will set out in the Saugerties area in the fall.

Donald Delamater, who is raising pheasants for the club, announced that they were thriving and would be ready for release whenever the club orders.

The pheasant report inspired a lengthy discussion on local cover for the birds and the possible benefits of the clubs current pheasant program.

It was announced that the next County Federation meeting would be held Thursday, Sept. 13 at Lake Katrine.

The next regular meeting of the Saugerties club is scheduled for Monday, Aug. 27.

Yonkers Turns Back Kingston, 11-4, in Junior Legion Tourney

Giannuzzi Routed As Local Post Is Eliminated

The Yonkers Post rallied in the late innings to overcome Kingston, 11-4, and gain the finals of the New York State Department American Legion Junior baseball championship last night before 300 onlookers at Dietz Stadium.

Yonkers will meet Rochester Saturday at 2 p. m. at Double-day Field in Cooperstown for the title. Rochester advanced with a semi-final win over Ithaca, 3-2, yesterday at Syracuse.

THE SETBACK for Kingston marked the second successive year that the locals were ousted from the tourney in the semi-finals. Bell Telephone of the Bronx turned the trick in '55 at White Plains, 11-1, with a one-hitter.

Going into the fifth inning, Kingston, behind its game southpaw Rennie Giannuzzi, led 4-1 and looked well on the road toward reaching the finals. Then Yonkers erupted for six runs to wipe out the deficit and ice the decision. Its four markers in the next round added a little tinsel to the victory.

Giannuzzi was working on a two-hitter when the carpet was rudely yanked from beneath him. In all justice to the swarthy southpaw it must be pointed out that he had pitched 20 innings of superlative ball in a little more than a week and appeared in all four games for Kingston. Undoubtedly the strain of the work caught up with him.

Yonkers paraded 10 players to the plate in both the fifth and sixth frames. Giannuzzi took most of the punishment before getting the hook with two on and nobody out in the sixth. John Mustion of Kerhonkson High school fame took over and got lumped hard before setting down the down-staters.

GIANNUZZI STARTED his own decline when he passed Ronnie Kubilius and rival hurler Romeo Fields after Bob Pearson's inning-opening single. The passes were the first two and last issued by the lefthander. Tony Caputo lined a hit to left to get the wheels turning and cut the deficit in half.

After Coote Antonucci fanned, Joe Ruyack lofted a drive to left. Mustion, playing shallow, slipped and fell after the drive and by the time he corralled the ball Ruyack was on third with a base-clearing triple. This placed Yonkers on top, 5-4. Ruyack scored seconds later on Frank Sammons' passed ball.

Don DiChiara, a powerfully built first sacker, personally took care of the sixth run of the inning. He singled, scampered to second and third on a passed ball and wild pitched in that order and then stole home.

Kubilius rocked Giannuzzi for a hit to start the sixth and continued to second when Mustion fumbled the ball. After Giannuzzi hit Fields with a pitched ball, Mustion was waved to the mound. He immediately passed Cape to load the bases. Another hit batsman (Antonucci) forced in Yonkers' eighth run.

RUYACK THEN surprised everyone with a punt along the third base. Mustion grabbed the ball and fired it wild past the plate. When everyone stopped running, Ruyack was on third and Yonkers had their last three runs in the bank.

Yonkers drew first blood in the second. Dick Limekiller got on through a two-base error by second sacker Ron Ferraro and scored on Bob Pearson's shot to right.

Kingston sent 10 batters to the plate in the fourth when they scored their runs. Mustion walked and Ferraro singled. After a passed ball on Limekiller put the pair in scoring position, Bill Cragan bounced a hit through the middle for two runs.

GIANNUZZI FOLLOWED with a hit and then Fields passed Hobie Armstrong and Frank Sammons in order to force home Kingston's third run. Giannuzzi counted the last tally on Eric Blackwell's fielder's choice bouncer.

Fields tightened up after that and permitted just two hits the rest of the way. Joey Hoffman got both of them a single and double. He also singled in the first frame for three hits in four trips.

American Legion notables at the game included Al White, 8th District Baseball Chairman. Andy Picono, vice-commander of Westchester county, Frank McGowan, post vice-chairman of Westchester county, Bill Frankle, Ulster county baseball chairman, Bill Hanley, commander of Kingston Post 150 and Charlie Crow, 3rd district baseball chairman.

Dodgers nipped the Red Sox, 3-2, and Yankees outslugged the Giants, 10-8, in second round action in the Hurley Little League.

Gruner struck out 14, walked seven and cracked a double for one of the two Dodger safeties. Struber whiffed eight and walked five.

DODGERS cinched the game with two runs in the fifth on a walk to Vince Trapanese and doubles by Gruner and Michael Canning.

Allen Youth Council Plans Baseball, Dramatics Program

A double-header baseball game and evening of dramatics and music have been arranged in the interest of interracial brotherhood between the Richard Allen Youth Council of Kingston and Camp Woodland, a children's camp at Phenicia, Friday afternoon and evening, August 3.

Admission is free at both events. Camp Woodland's Work Camp will supply the baseball teams to play the Youth Council teams Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. at Hasbrouck Park.

Church on Foxhall avenue at 8 o'clock. The dramatic group of the Work Camp will present a play based on the life of Sojourner Truth, the great Negro Abolitionist born at Hurley. A staff chorus will sing, and individual staff members will present ballads and songs collected by Camp Woodland and tales collected by Camp Woodland will also be told.

These events have been planned in the interest of interracial brotherhood under the leadership of Rev. S. B. Chappell, pastor of the A.M.E. Church.

Trips Strengthen Grip on Top Spot
(By The Associated Press)
The Binghamton Triplets strengthened their grip on first place in the Eastern League last night by winning the first game of a twin bill and holding the second-place Schenectady Blue Jays to a 2-2, 15-inning tie in the nightcap.

The 7-1 victory in the opening game enabled the Trips to take a half-game lead over the Jays.

The nightcap was moving into the wee hours of the morning when umpires called it at 12:50 a. m., in accordance with league rules.

THE GAME will be replayed as the second game of a double-header tonight in Binghamton.

Johnstown won two games from seventh to sixth in the standings. The Johnnies beat the Indians, 5-2, in an afternoon game and managed a 6-4 triumph in the evening contest.

Albany won a pair from last place Syracuse, 9-1 and 5-3, while Allentown split with Williamsport in their two game test.

The Redbirds whipped the Grays 2-1 in the seven inning opener and the Grays evened things with a 9-5 win in the second game.

The largest crowd of the season—2,035—watched the Trips and Jays battle for the top spot.

Losers' Record Squared at 5-5

Dobler Beer "upset" the Kingston Eagles, 6-4, in the City Baseball League yesterday, virtually assuring Jack Watzka's tossers of second place in the proposed post-season playoffs.

Jones Dairy has wrapped up the No. 1 seeding as league champions.

The triumph was the third for the Doblers in 10 decisions and was effected in a battle of 5-hitters. The loss squared the Eagle record at 5 wins and 5 losses.

League Standing	Won	Lost
Jones Dairy	9	1
Watzkas	7	3
Eagles	5	5
Saugerties	4	5
Nadler Motors	4	5
Doblers	3	7

Four pitchers toiled for the two teams in an unusual breakdown in a game marked by only six hits. Russ Edwards, who permitted only one hit in five innings, got credit for the Dobler triumph. Jesse Reynolds, the Eagle starter, was tagged with the loss.

EAGLES MADE a last inning stand against Frank Reis, scoring three times on walks to Tom German and Tony Childs and a pair of doubles by Albert Tate and Lee Kithcart. But Reis nailed down the game without further damage.

Doblers picked up a couple unearned runs in the first inning off Reynolds, added another in the third and drove him to cover with three runs in the fourth.

Lee Kithcart, who played left field and caught for the Eagles, was the top hitter of the game with a single and double.

Jones Dairy makes its final appearance of the regular season this evening against Saugerties Whiz Kids.

Exam Is Planned For Case Workers

An examination for case workers in local public welfare departments has been announced by the New York State Department of Civil Service.

Thomas H. Bohan, executive secretary of the Ulster County Civil Service Commission, said one vacancy existed in this county. Starting salary in Ulster county is $3,240 with five increments of $120 each up to $3,840.

He said the position also carried attractive fringe benefits, such as three weeks vacation and accrued sick leave of one day a month up to 120 days.

The list will also be used to fill future vacancies. The examination will be held Oct. 6, 1956. Applications will be accepted up to Sept. 7, 1956. Application forms may be obtained from the local office, 32 Main street, or from the State Department of Civil Service, Gov. Alfred E. Smith State Office Building, Albany, N. Y.

Applicants must be high school graduates. They must plan to graduate by February, 1957, from college, or have four years of social work experience or a "satisfactory equivalent of such training and experience."

Movie Replaces Talks
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 1 (AP)—A 15-minute movie on Gov. Harriman's career has replaced a brace of speakers on the schedule for tomorrow night's "send-off" for the state's chief executive. About 2,000 Democrats are expected at the $50-a-plate dinner to mark the governor's departure for the party convention in Chicago, where he will seek the presidential nomination.

The speakers displaced by "The Harriman Story" included New York's Mayor Robert F. Wagner, a convention delegate who has said he would cast his half vote for Harriman on the first ballot as a courtesy but then switch to Adlai Stevenson.

Woolson Weaker
Duluth, Minn., Aug. 1 (AP)—Albert Woolson, sole Union Army survivor of the Civil War, appeared early today to be weakening, attendants at St. Luke's Hospital reported. Woolson, suffering from a lung congestion, went into a coma early Saturday and has been unconscious since. He has been hospitalized several times since celebrating his 109th birthday on Feb. 11, entering the last time shortly before Memorial Day.

The answers to everyday insurance problems*
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: When I buy insurance by phone and the agent says I'm covered, is he telling me the truth or must the insurance wait till I pay the premium?

ANSWER: He's telling you the truth. He issues a "binder" memo which protects you. Of course, if you didn't pay within a short time he'd be stuck with the earned premium due his company.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.

Rondout School District Adopts $642,000 Budget

A budget of $642,000 for the 1956-57 school year was approved at a special meeting of the newly formed Rondout Valley Central School, Stone Ridge. The vote was 107 in the affirmative, two against and one blank ballot for a total of 110 ballots cast.

Kevin Reynolds, president of the board of education, opened the meeting and A. J. Anderson of Kerhonkson was elected chairman of the meeting and presided. Prior to adoption of the budget there were several questions in regard to the budget such as transportation and other items which were answered to the satisfaction of the inquirer and the vote was then taken.

Attendance at the meeting was comparatively small, a total of approximately 150 attending. The district is officially known as Central School District No. 1, Towns of Marbletown, Rochester, Rosendale and Wawarsing. No other business came before the special meeting.

Dairymen's League Will Move Plant Operation
New York, Aug. 1 (AP)—A super-modern and top efficient milk processing and distribution plant to be built in Queens will be leased next year for 25 years by the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association, Stanley H. Benham, league president, has announced.

Replacing the present League plant in Manhattan at 12th avenue and West 48th street, the new plant will be built in the vicinity of 59th street and Tyler avenue in Queens. Construction is scheduled for completion in January, 1957.

Equipment in the Queens plant will illustrate the most up-to-date advances in automation in the dairy industry. Other savings resulting from efficiencies in transportation, labor, and space utilization will be gained.

"Operating costs in the new plant are expected to be about 20 per cent less than in the Manhattan plant," comments T. W. Greenway, league business manager.

He points out that the Manhattan plant, now 10 years old, was built when most league milk came to New York city in railroad cars. The plant was therefore located near the railroad depots.

But today most League milk comes to New York city in tank trucks.

Rains Pound Denver

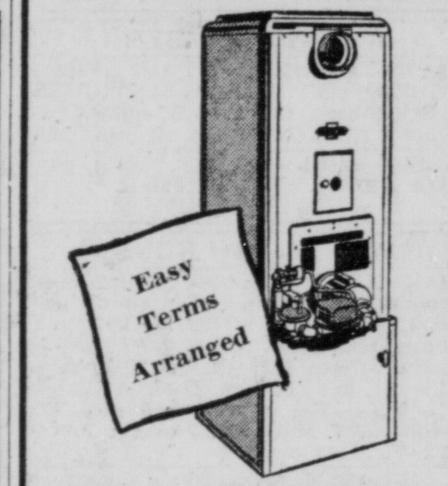

Denver, Aug. 1 (AP)—A third day of pounding rain flooded southern sections of this city yesterday. Rising water forced hundreds of families from their homes and pushed damage estimates into the millions of dollars. City officials declared an emergency. More than 600 regular and auxiliary police were rushed into the stricken area. Water ran two to three feet deep in streets, paralyzing traffic, and poured into homes. The rain slackened off about midnight.
